STATE COUNCIL OF DEFENSE IS UNABLE TO AID

Reports to Governor There Is No Use
of Further Parleying With Indiana Coal Operators.

INDIANA AND ILLINOIS JOINED TO ACT

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 8.—Efforts of the special coal committee of the state council of defense to effect reductions in the price of coal have failed. The committee so reported to the council today and was discharged from further responsibility.

Chairman William G. Irwin, of the special committee, reported that an effort had been made to delay still further report but the committee "could not see the wisdom of further delay" and preferred to keep its promise of a report this week.

Governor Goodrich, of Indiana, and Governor Lowden, of Illinois, discussed the coal situation in the two states over the long distance telephone today. Governor Goodrich said that Governor Lowden asserted he expected to meet Illinois coal operators at Springfield today, but intimated he did not expect much in the way of tangible results at this time. It was agreed in the talk that the call to the governors of fourteen other states to meet in conference August 16, should be signed jointly by the Illinois and Indiana governors.

It was also agreed that if special sessions of the legislatures of the two states were called, they should convene on the same day as they probably will have similar problems to deal with.

While the state council of defense recommended to Governor Frank O. Lowden, seizure of the coal mines in Illinois, for the period of the war, as a means of reducing prices, the hope was expressed that the states of the central west will join in urging congress to enact a law that will confer full and sweeping powers of control over coal prices and distribution in an administrative body of the federal government which would have machinery to give instant relief. The committee of the state defense said seizure of the mines can be affected without the institution of judicial proceedings, the right of the state being in the security of sov-

FAKE ASSASSIN IS NOVEL PROFESSION POPULAR IN RUSSIA

Petrograd, June 20.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press.)—Among the novelties which Russia's revolution has presented to the world is the profession of fake assassin. In other countries only persons suffering from hallucinations claim to have committed murders of which they are innocent. Here as a result of Nicholas' overthrow, posing as an assassin is a highly profitable if transitory career of business.

Terrorists released from Siberian convict jails and exile villages are naturally made heroes of. They are given train accommodations, free dinners, free clothes and gifts of money. When they reach their native towns they are acclaimed as martyrs of liberty; and they receive proposals of marriage from wealthy young women. As a result of this novel condition many enterprising citizens whose hands are innocent of anything grimmer than mud or ink are posing as murderers of despotic officials. Women as well as men are entering the profession.

In Minsk has been arrested Catherine Smirnov, who announced that she had murdered the czar, and was given a sympathetic crowd by the demonstrators.

Globe, Ariz., Aug. 8.—A force of mounted rangers led by Deputy Sheriff Dan Arner was expected to reach the scene today of the Apache Indian uprising in the Sierra Anchas mountains, fifty miles northwest of here, where nine white men, employees of the Asbestos mines in that region, were reported to be surrounded by a mob of more than one hundred striking Indian and Mexican miners, while a forest fire set by the Indians was sweeping the mountains.

Other forces of cowboys and forest rangers are hurrying to the imperiled white men's assistance from Tonto and

Barons Declare They Will

Lexington, Ky., Aug. 8.—Reports reaching here from Pineville state that the strike movement among the miners of southeastern Kentucky and northeastern Tennessee is rapidly growing.

The dispatches from that section say that after fruitless efforts made during last night and today to induce the coal operators to enter negotiations, District No. 19, United Mine Workers of America, had voted to strike.

Reports say that if the order is adhered to in its entirety 25,000 men will be on strike throughout the district by Saturday night. The report stated that the strike vote was unanimous among the delegates.

It was also stated that a number of the larger mine operators had issued notices that they will shut down their plants rather than recognize the United Mine Workers of America. The notices stated that as a basis for their contention they claim the miners in this field now receive the highest wages in the history of the field, wages in some instances having been increased 50 per cent.

The miners are demanding recognition of the union and a new wage scale adjustment.

Washington, Aug. 8.—Decision of the war department to abandon the army division of 28,000 men in favor of the continental unit of about 19,000 troops was due, it was said today, to changes in modern warfare that made the old command unwieldy and cumbersome in trench fighting. The division under the old system was not sufficiently mobile "for the peculiar needs of fighting on the western front."

Under the new plan, a division will include two infantry brigades of two regiments each, instead of three brigades of three regiments each as formerly. The artillery and machine gun strength is materially increased, the cavalry regiment, now a prominent part of the unit, is eliminated, a new trench mortar battery is added, and the old army corps plan abandoned after the civil war is again revived.

FOUR AMERICAN LIVE STAKENBY GERMAN U-BOAT

London, Aug. 8.—Four Americans were lost on the British steamer Belgian Prince, which was sunk July 31, by a German submarine. One American is among the survivors.

The Americans who lost their lives were William Crisley, of Hughes, 144 East Second street, Philadelphia; James Shaw, Detroit; Thomas Gilmore, Merrick, Mass.; Ben Cain, negro, Norfolk, Va.

The sole American survivor is Wm. Snell, a negro from Jacksonville, Fla. The American consul at British port today heard from his lips the story of the murder of the crew.

Thirty-eight of the crew of the steamer were drowned and three others were rescued by a patrol boat and taken to a British port. The survivors say the submarine attacked the vessel after which the commander ordered the crew to take to the boats and go alongside the submarine. According to the survivors the Germans removed the life belts and clothing from all the crew except eight, smashed the life boats with axes, then re-entered the submarine and closed the hatches leaving the men on deck. After traveling on the surface for several miles, the U-boat submerged.

Action of selection boards in Fort Wayne and Allen county for those who are exempted will be announced soon.

Washington, Aug. 8.—The American mission to Russia, headed by Elihu Root, returned to Washington today to report to President Wilson on the results of his three months' trip to the world's newest democracy.

A delegation of government officials met the party at the railway station. Major General Scott, chief of staff of the army, who spent much time at the front, will report to Secretary Baker. The general was with the Russian army part of the time it was in rout before the German forces and is expected to bring much valuable military information.

Arrangements were made at the White House for President Wilson to receive Mr. Root and all the members of the mission accompanying him at 4 o'clock this afternoon. Later Mr. Root will see Secretary Lansing. It is expected that Mr. Root will make a partial report at the brief conference today, but will make a fuller report later. Much, if not all of it, necessarily will be confidential.

Filled With Optimism.

The mission returned filled with optimism over conditions in the new republic and the chances of Russia doing her part to the end in the great war.

Assurances that the United States will remain in the war to the end and improved railroad facilities were declared by different members of the mission to be among the outstanding needs of Russia.

KINGDON GOULD WOULD BE SURE WIFE CAN LIVE

New York, Aug. 8.—Kingdon Gould, of Lakewood, N. J., eldest son of George J. Gould, who claimed exemption when called before the draft board at Toms River, N. J., Monday, on the ground that he had dependents, explained last night that he probably would not stand on the claim. His wife, a bride of only a month, was willing for him to serve, he said. Mr. Gould explained that his action before the exemption board was prompted by the fact that after he had passed the physical examination it was necessary for him to declare his intention of claiming exemption at once and as he had not consulted his wife, he adopted that

Chancellor Michaelis and His Choice
of Colleagues Upsets Hope of Parliamentary Reforms.

SOCIALISTS WILL OPPOSE NEW REGIME

Copenhagen, Aug. 7.—The democratic movement in Germany which reformers were sure was getting such a splendid start in the recent reichstag crisis now seems to be slipping backwards, down grade.

The liberal and radical newspapers in Germany generally interpret the selection by Dr. Michaelis, the chancellor, of his colleagues as a distinct rejection of the principle of parliamentarism or parliamentary influence upon the administration.

The social organ Vorwaerts announces that the cabinet members, Spahn, Krause and Mueller enter the government as individuals, not as party representatives. Therefore, the party assumes no responsibility, but retains completely a free hand toward the government. Herr Mueller particularly, has long had no executive connection with the socialist party and has a purely administrative non-political post.

Must Be Last of Its Kind.

The Vorwaerts declares that the present government must be the last of its kind and must be supplanted by a government of the people. Dr. Michaelis is also getting further away from the reichstag peace resolution even as he interprets the days pass. The phrase in his speech Saturday on

THE LAWYERS OF BRUSSELS HONOR A HEROIC MAYOR

Havre, Aug. 8.—Lawyers of Brussels have unanimously elected Adolphe Max, the heroic burgomaster of Brussels, imprisoned by Germans, as president of the bar association, according to news received here. The announcement of the election was received with rousing cheers regardless of the fact that German sentries were posted at the palace of justice, where the election took place.

Burgomaster Max was arrested at Brussels Sept. 28, 1914, for his "irreconcilable attitude" according to an announcement of the German military governor. After being imprisoned at various places in Germany he was finally interned at Glatz. Paris papers some time ago asked President Wilson, the pope and the king of Spain to intervene in his behalf. More recently the Belgians offered to exchange the German governor-general of East Africa for Max.

MUST FIGHT OR BECOME SLAVES OF THE KAISER

London, Aug. 8.—The correspondent of the Times at the headquarters of the seventh Russian army talked with General Korniloff on the eve of his departure to take over the supreme command. General Korniloff said: "The first stage of the war is over. The second phase begins today."

The correspondent says the Russian commander repudiates the possibility of the Russians surrendering. He holds that if Russia concludes a dishonorable peace, to which traitors have been driving her she will become a German colony forever.

RECEIVING BIDS FOR
Y. M. C. A. BUILDING

Fourteen Contractors File
Estimates to Be Considered Thursday.

Thursday will probably mark the awarding of the greatest building contract of the year in Fort Wayne—the Y. M. C. A. building on the old Hope hospital site, southwest corner of Washington and Bar streets. Bids are being received today and at noon tomorrow at a meeting of the building committee they will be opened, examined and possibly the contracts awarded. Separate bids will be received on the building proper, including the foundations, on the wiring, plumbing, heating and ventilating systems. It is estimated that between twelve and fourteen bids will be filed, some from local contractors and others from out of the city. W. F. Shattuck, of Chicago, the architect, will be present to go over and discuss the various contracts with the building committee. None of the committee seen this morning would venture a prediction of the result of the bidding or whether any of the bids would be accepted. The personnel of the committee is as follows: A. H. Perfect, chairman; Arthur F. Hall, vice chairman; W. N. Ballou, secretary; B. Paul Mosman, E. E. Green, F. S. Hunting, A. S. Coverdale, George P. Evans and S. B. Bechtel. Some of the committeemen are out of the city today, but all are expected to be at the meeting Thursday. The collection of the third payment on the Y. M. C. A. subscriptions are beginning to come in a little more rapidly than a few days ago, but not as rapidly as they should. It is learned that there should be from thirty-five to forty payments a day to bring the fund in on schedule time, but the average is only about twenty. The third subscription payments were due to begin July 1.

USED RIFLES IN DRILL.

Fort Wayne Rifle Drill Squad Has Guns for First Time.

The drill squad of the Fort Wayne Rifle and Revolver squad met at Swinney park last evening. E. A. Wagner, president of the club, was out and gave a brief talk, after which Captain Bradley instructed the members of the squad in the handling of the rifles, this being the first time rifles have been used in the drill. Increased interest was shown and rifles will again be in order when the squad meets on Thursday evening. Arrangements have been made so that the rifles belonging to the club will be available for men who do not have rifles of their own. All men subject to conscription are invited to join in this drill, even though they may not be members of the Rifle club.

GIRLS TO HAVE FIELD DAY.

Industrial Federation to Assemble at Swinney Park Saturday.

The federation of industrial clubs of the Y. W. C. A., which includes the following organizations, Gymnastics, Perfections, Dudes, Busy Bees, Elex Girls and the Bosco club, will hold its second annual field day at Swinney park Saturday afternoon. The program will be interesting. One feature that will attract special attention will be the ball game between teams composed entirely of ladies and those who witnessed the "try outs" say that the playing will be exceptionally good.

LABOR SITUATION VERY BAD.

The labor situation at the various industries and shops of the city was never in a more discouraging condition than at present. Every shop in the city is short on laborers, with prospects of little improvement soon, unless the experiments with female labor now being made are successful. A shop manager where many men are employed said this morning that during the past six or eight months over 2,000 laborers were hired at the shop and today the number is less than it was at the beginning of the year. Men take employment and work only a few days, when they resign and go to another shop. The employment agent at another big concern where several hundred additional men are needed today, said a day or two ago that he was taking on an average of twenty-five men and women a day, but there were nearly that many resignations.

TAKEN SERIOUSLY ILL.

M. P. Reed, a fireman on a west-bound Pennsylvania freight train, was taken suddenly and seriously ill with gall stones while in the cab last night and had to give up the run at Plymouth and go to the hospital where he was attended by Dr. W. D. Aspinall. Mr. Reed was able to be up this morning and to converse by telephone with an attaché of the office of O. E. Maxwell, road foreman of engines in this city. He said he would probably be able to come home today. Mr. Reed resides on Greene street.

GONE TO UNCLE'S FUNERAL.

Machinist George Strasser, of the Pennsylvania shops, left last night with his father for Newcastle, Pa., where a brother of the aged man died yesterday. They will remain there until after the funeral. The trip is quite a task for one as old as Mr. Strasser, sr., who is past eighty-two.

CYRIL POIRY RECOVERS.

Cyril P. Poiry resumed his work in the Pennsylvania air brake department this morning. Three months ago he was operated upon for relief from a trouble that had caused him a good deal of anxiety and pain and the operation was successful, though it was long in bringing the desired results.

INDUSTRIAL NOTES.

J. C. Nycum, G. R. & I. fireman, is off duty on account of sickness. Passenger Engineer A. E. Mills, of the G. R. & I., has joined his family at Rome City for a week's outing. E. Stima, a laborer at the Pennsylvania erecting shops, is on duty again, after being sick two or three days. R. Kessel, machinist's helper in the Pennsylvania erecting shop, is sick and off duty. W. P. Hallstein, supervisor of signals of the Pennsylvania, has returned from a business trip to Pittsburg. Machinist Joseph Markey, of the Pennsylvania shops, has gone to Bucyrus to visit a few days. W. J. Ackerman, time clerk in the G. R. & I. offices, is at Lake James giving exhibitions in catching bass and bluegills. He is an expert in that line. C. I. Rodabaugh, G. R. & I. fireman, reported for work this morning. He was off duty a week on account of the illness of his wife. Time Clerk Miss Hilda Neeb, of the General Electric small motor winding department, is spending a week at a nearby resort. Helen Crouse is spending this week at Lake James. She is employed in the small motor department of the General Electric works. Miss Vivian Underwood, of the small motor department of the General Electric works, is on duty again, after a pleasant week's visit at Grand Rapids with friends. C. J. Shaffer, stationary fireman, and F. B. Shiveley, crane operator, of the Pennsylvania power plant, have gone to Rome City to spend the balance of the week fishing and boating. R. E. Kaiser, apprentice in the Pennsylvania lathe room, was taken ill in the shop this morning and had to knock off work and go home. His condition is not serious.

Among the new men at the General Electric works today is Machinist F. A. Reed, who resigned a position at the Pennsylvania shops yesterday after a service there of about three months. Over $21,000 was paid in monthly bonus to the employees of the General Electric works yesterday. The period covered by the bonus was June 18 to July 14. This was in addition to the regular wages. Joseph C. Grosjean, head of the billing department of the General Electric works, is taking a vacation. L. P. Sherrick, of the shipping department, is spending a portion of his vacation at Lima, his former home. Engineer C. J. McDaniels, of the G. R. & I., is taking a western trip, which will take him to Denver, Salt Lake City and other points in that part of the country and consume about two weeks. Gus F. Rogge, foreman of the detail department of the General Electric works, is out on a vacation this week. Foreman F. A. Smith, of the field coil winding department, is also out on a vacation. He is at Rome City. The only local freight trains on the Nickel Plate carrying passengers at present are the two running in and out of Fort Wayne. One goes to Knox and the other to Leipsic. Formerly all of the local freight trains carried passengers. A. J. Huber, who was at Lake James yesterday assisting in the search for his nephew, who was drowned several days ago, returned last night disheartened over the result of the search. Mr. Huber resumed work at the Pennsylvania planning mills this morning. Machinist Oswald Kamm, of the Pennsylvania tool room, failed to report for work this morning and it is presumed he is sick. Charles Laubscher is also absent from the tool room because of the condition of a relative who was operated upon at the hospital a week or more ago. Henry W. Stute, piece work price clerk in the Pennsylvania machine shops, now handles the business of the position in a neat enclosure, instead of at a desk in the open, exposed to dust and noise of the shops. A small office building for his accommodation has been erected in the west central part of the big machine shop, a short distance from the site of his former office. The Mutual Benefit association of the General Electric works, which was organized in 1897, now has 1,115 members and has disbursed in death and sick benefits a total of $2,754, about $500 in death claims and $2,054 in sick benefits. Only one of the original officers is now employed at the works, William Brennan, the first chairman, is still here. John Dalton, the first secretary, is residing in Lafayette, and Harry Templar, the first treasurer, died some years ago.

PETEY DINK IS TO
BE AT SWINNEY PARK

Bowser Military Club Makes
Arrangements to Start
Hunt for Him.

The week just passed has seen many sanguinary attacks by the enemy. Running true to form, however, our line has made counter attack after counter attack, using "gas" of a most effective nature, recently discovered by an eminent scientist, which has resulted in a success far exceeding our wildest expectations. At the present rate of advance we venture to make a most conservative prophecy—that General Petey Dink will lead his forces to a signal victory never before equaled in the history of man.

The last stand of the enemy will be at Swinney park Thursday evening, August 9th. Don't fail to see this daring, but modest hero in action. He will be there during the whole evening, but owing to his extremely modest disposition he will not be in the uniform of his rank. It is up to you, if you want to speak with him, to address him as follows, without smiling: "You are Petey Dink, the gink that put the submarine on the blink."

If, by chance, you happen to be addressing Petey, he will acknowledge it at once and make the necessary arrangements for the $5 offered by the club for his discovery to be paid to you.

The "cats" and "drinks" for the evening will be on a scale never before heard of. Good music and barrels of fun for every one. There will be plenty of tables and chairs and as double assurance of good service we have only to mention the fact that the Bowser girls are to assist.

The park will be beautifully decorated in colored lights, with distinctive original effects. No stone has been left unturned in our efforts to make the social a stupendous success that will be long remembered by everyone. The street car company has promised special street car service on the East Creighton and Pontiac lines to Swinney Park.

SCOTTISH RITE TO
BE GIVEN SOLDIERS

Degrees Will Be Conferred
on Reserve Officers
Next Sunday.

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 8.—For the benefit of the soldier Masons now at Fort Benjamin Harrison, the Scottish Rite bodies of the Valley of Indianapolis will hold a special convocation at the temple in South Pennsylvania street Sunday, when the degrees of the rite will be conferred on those who wish to avail themselves of the opportunity. The plan was suggested when a number of members of the officers' reserve corps who are Master Masons, expressed a desire to obtain the degrees before leaving for military service at the close of the training camp.

The project was favored by John T. Sauter, three potent master of Adoniram Lodge of Perfection, who obtained a dispensation to confer the degrees at a special meeting. A sufficient number of petitions were received to warrant going ahead with the undertaking and announcement was made last evening that the arrangements had been made.

Brigadier-General Edwin F. Glenn, in command of the army post, who is a member of the Scottish Rite and a Knight Templar, promised his co-operation in the matter of allowing leave to any of the men desiring to take the degrees. Mr. Sauter announced that Master Masons from any of the states represented at the post came under the jurisdiction of the Indianapolis Scottish Rite at this time, and that petitions, if sent in at once, would be acted on in time for the conferring of the degrees Sunday. In view of the unusual conditions it has been arranged that petitions will be received or information given by Mr. Sauter or Francis T. Holliday, secretary of the temple.

Those who take the degrees Sunday will comprise what will be known as the Liberty class.

AMONITORY BOMB.

The Illinois council of defense exploded a bomb under the coal operators when it delivered an ultimatum to the mine barons asserting the power of the state to seize the mines within its jurisdiction. The price of coal is felt to be too high, the profits of the operators too great, the burdens upon the consumer too heavy, the handicap to industry too severe and the general bad effect of ruthlessness too costly to the people of the commonwealth to be tolerated. It therefore is the judgment of the council that forthwith these conditions should be mended or be ended.

The law committee of the council harbors no doubt of the state's authority under the constitution to seize and operate the mines for the public benefit. The council itself believes this should be done if relief from profiteering and extortion can be had in no other way. There is no purpose to proceed to an immediate seizure. The operators are to have fair chance to get right. The ultimatum is merely a monitory bomb set off to engage the attention of the coal barons of Illinois to the right of eminent domain resident in the supreme authority of the state and people. If they heed it, very well; if they do not heed it, so much the worse for them. Other states are to be solicited to join with Illinois in the consideration of these stiff measures of justice for the people and defense of the nation in order that there may be uniform action and that what Illinois may do for herself shall not operate to unjust disadvantage or unfair gain anywhere and that the strength of united action in a broad field may be had.

What Illinois proclaims its right to do and makes threat to execute is precisely what Governor Goodrich and the state council of defense in Indiana have had under consideration as the best means to improve conditions that the Indiana public service commission some weeks ago described as "outrageous." Governor Goodrich has indicated more than once that he will not hesitate to summon the legislature of the state to a special session to deal with the situation if no other way can be found for insuring the proper operation of the Indiana mines and the sale of coal at fair prices. So there is likely to be no reluctance on the part of the Indiana authorities and the state council of defense to join with Illinois and fourteen other states in the conference called for August 16 in Chicago to discuss joint action.

We believe that if they peer into this thing with a true desire to see what it may contain of interest to themselves the coal operators of this and other states will discern the danger it holds for them. They will perhaps discern more than mere danger to the privileges of extortion. They will see certain signs of public temper and impatience. They will behold in the earlier processes of formation a new principle of public relation to natural resources. In short they will discover that the old and frightening radicalism of naturalization of coal mines and mining lands has ceased to be the horrific thing it once was to the public mind and that the people of the country have need of not above one more winter like the last—such a winter as that coming gives full promise of being if the coal barons go on unmolested—to provoke a general cry against them and a loud and angry demand for government ownership and control of the nation's fuel resources.

The Illinois operators defiantly announce that they will fight. No doubt they will. But they will not for any great length of days openly fight the people of their state any more than their fellow robber barons in the other coal states and all of them together will for any great length of days fight the people of the nation. It probably has been lost sight of, but the fact remains that the rights of the people are still fundamental in the structure of this government. It is not always easy to

to get the people to attempt it; but we believe that the mass of the people is rapidly becoming of one mind at least about the outrages they suffer in the price of coal and of one opinion as to the best way to redress themselves.

We somehow have a bit of confidence that the forthcoming conference in Chicago will have results. We believe the Illinois state council of defense has "started something" that with the aid of other states can be finished.

IS NOT MILITARY SERVICE.

There appears to be here and there some misgiving that the Boys' National Reserve, now to be organized under auspices of the federal government, are to be employed in military service. This is not true. Those who spread that view of it are either guilty of falsehood or under gross error. Nothing is more remote from the purpose of organizing this reserve than to exact military service of it. It has been reported that in parts of Indiana there has been a good deal of diligence by persons to warn boys and their parents that the government wants these youngsters for military duty and in consequence a lot of wholly useless and entirely gratuitous anxiety and indignation have been bestowed upon the movement.

Parents may take every assurance that nothing of the sort is intended as a part of the program of national service designed for the Boys' Reserve. They are to be employed at labor of one sort and another that is indispensable to the country and that will be remunerative to the boys who perform it. A great many of the boys will be given work on farms to make up a shortage of agricultural labor that has been persistent for a good while and that will be aggravated to some extent by the going of young men from the country into the armies. For boys not suited to farm work tasks to which they are better adapted will be found. Whatever it may be that is found for the boys to do will do them good, pay them fairly and will not be military service. Every parent should get that fact fixed clearly in his mind. When the boys of the reserve are old enough to enlist or of age to come within the limits of the compulsory service law military duty will fall upon them as it does upon the young men their seniors now.

The Boys' Reserve is to be an army of workers. They will be in the service of their country and it will be to the highest degree a patriotic service of which each lad thus answering the call to the colors may be proud. The youth of America can render a mighty service to the nation and there will be no holding back by the boys of 16 to 20 who now are to help to do the work that older men who must do the nation's fighting have been compelled to leave undone.

This will be a national service but it will not be a military service. Those who busy themselves to spread such an idea among the people are giving currency to a lie for sinister purposes.

LET THEM EXPLAIN.

In some form or another the food control law will soon be a law. It will not be the effectual measure it was designed to be at the outset by those who framed it and sponsored it, but it will be better than nothing at all.

The measure comes to hand so tardily as to have missed much of the opportunity for doing good. It should have been in operation not later than the first of July. It might very well have been in operation a fortnight earlier than that and still more greatly to the general benefit. That it was not made the law in good season has been due to certain attorneys-at-law and kaiser reservists in the congress of the United States.

The representatives of big interests—food speculators and booze-makers—have been constantly and vigilantly on their jobs in looking out for their own. They have delayed the food control bill for many weeks most needlessly and, so far as their interests are concerned, most uselessly. They have not prevented a food bill, though they have given their interests some days of grace and have penalized the people and have handicapped the national government in war.

Those senators who have lent themselves to other interests than the national interests should be marked and watched.

The trouble with Big Bill Thompson is that, as he is, he doesn't do anything that will permit the city of Chicago to disconnect him from the mayoralty—that is without violence of an unseemly and perhaps illegal if not unjustifiable sort.

The National Boys' Reserve is an idea worth while—both for the country and the boys. No lad will get else than good from the sense of rendering patriotic service and training in work is good for all.

The latest nation to declare war is Liberia. Liberians probably want a chance to get away from Liberia.

If Illinois can grab the coal mines, so too can Indiana.

In dancing bush and panting tree,
In gaunt-grown leaf, and quickened clod,
The intense mother-zeal of God.

The growing satin-greens arise,
With shaded homage to the skies,
The leafy magic of pale flowers
Springs up to touch the flowing hours.

I see a sunbeam laugh and stir,
And, flashing out all princelier
Than Satrap 'mongst his well-greaved men,
Drink dead the dew, then sink again.

And small, green things lie planted here,
That the Father has made richer
Than Gilded Spire, or Golden Calf,

The heat of tiny living things
Touches the glade with myriad wings,
Until the wood in music seems
All ready to dissolve in dreams.

General Leonard Wood does not intend to depend on local authorities for eradication of vice conditions in the vicinity of the army camps in his department, but has announced that the fullest military co-operation will be extended. By this, of course, he means that where the local authorities are unable or unwilling to wipe out the vicious resorts he will use the military power for that purpose. As the general happens to be a man of prompt and decisive character, it may be taken for granted that conditions will be reasonably clean around the encampments in the southeastern department.

WHAT OF THE ALIEN? HOW SHALL HE DO WAR DUTY FOR UNCLE SAM

(By MILTON BRONNER.)

While we are drafting native and naturalized Americans for our armies, are over 1,300,000 aliens of draft age, enjoying all the liberties and privileges of this country, to go scot-free of war duties?

This question, among the knottiest of the war, is constantly being fired at the president, the war and state departments and the congress, and is still far from solution.

When it tackles the subject, the government has to recognize that international law protects this alien from military duty and also that there are three kinds of aliens:

1. Natives of countries at war with Germany.

2. Natives of Germany or allied countries.

3. Natives of neutral countries.

So far only one affirmative action has been taken. A resolution by Senator McCumber of North Dakota, has been adopted directing the president to negotiate with European nations especially numerous in the northwest, to draft their alien citizens in this country for our armies.

The president and state department both favored this resolution, applying to natives of Great Britain, France, Italy, Russia, Serbia, Belgium, Rumania and Portugal.

It would effect the French-Canadians and Portuguese so numerous in New England, and about 400,000 aboriginal Italians. It would not apply to Poles, Bohemians, Croats, Jugoslavs, etc., numerous in Ohio, Pennsylvania and the middle west. They are subjects of Austria-Hungary. If drafted in our armies and captured, they might be subjected to the death penalty as traitors.

Similarly the McCumber resolution does not apply to aliens from Norway, Sweden, Denmark, Holland, Spain and Switzerland. The Scandinavians are especially numerous in the northwest. Their countries are neutral, and it violates international law to force them out of their neutrality.

Senator Chamberlain, military chairman, intends to push his own joint resolution, aimed to reach a far larger class than the McCumber resolution. Chamberlain proposes to take citizens of our allies and of the neutrals, and even to use aliens from enemy countries.

His resolution flatly provides that all aliens resident in this country more than a year shall be subject to draft provided they are not subjects of an enemy country, or unless their native land has a specific treaty exempting them. But if the diplomatic representative of the country waives the exemption, the alien cannot claim it unless he leaves the country within 90 days.

To show the difference between the McCumber and Chamberlain resolutions, Italy has a treaty exempting its natives from compulsory military service here. Under the McCumber resolution the state department is seeking Italy's consent to draft unnaturalized Italians. Under the Chamberlain resolution these Italians would be exempt unless the Italian ambassador told us to go ahead.

Furthermore the Chamberlain measure would affect all the Scandinavians and Dutch because their countries have no specific exemption treaties.

It also provides subjects of any enemy country shall be classified, and subjects of neutral countries not drafted for military service, may make their

of the president, be used for other purposes during the war.

This would open the way, for instance, to draft races like the Bohemians, Croats, etc., subjects of Austria-Hungary but hating the rulers of their native land. Races not thus drafted could be utilized in farming, manufacturing, etc.

Congressman Henry Burnett, of Alabama, has introduced a bill providing that any alien, native of a country at war with Germany, who but for his alienage would be subject to draft and claims exemption on that account, shall forever be denied the right to become an American citizen and shall be deported to his native country as soon as practicable. It also authorizes the president to draft any alien in this country, no matter what his native land, to perform any kind of labor designated, in farms, factories or elsewhere. The president may exempt from this aliens he may deem dangerous.

These countries have specific treaties exempting their nationals from military service in the United States: Argentina, Costa Rica, Honduras, Italy, Japan, Paraguay, Serbia, Spain, Switzerland.

DO IT CHEERFULLY

(Detroit News.)

No nation or people or individual ever made a better investment than this nation will make right now by investing large amounts of money in preparation for war, now that we are in the war.

You never know exactly how an investment will turn out, but it is as certain as any human effort can be made certain that money invested in munitions now will be paid back in human lives later.

The English-French allies and the German-Austrian allies were about evenly matched when the war began three years ago, and are about evenly matched now.

Three years ago each side was made up of nations composed of the natural quota of strong, healthy, able-bodied men. That they were about evenly divided is shown by the fact that as soon as the French and English were able to get their armies together they were strong enough to stop the German onrush toward Paris, but that the German-Austrian forces were equally strong is shown by the fact that the English-French allies were not able to drive them back to their own border, Russia helping some by drawing part of the German forces to the eastern border.

That they are about of equal strength now is shown by the fact that neither side can scarcely make a dent in the other's lines. Shells are fired, charges made, millions killed in the course of a year, and when it is all over the lines of trenches are very close to where they were in the beginning.

It is into this conflict that America has entered to bring peace, either with or without a fight to a finish.

Nothing is now more likely to bring the peace without the fight to a finish than to be ready to make it a fight to a finish.

We need not try to fool ourselves into thinking that the Germans do not know what we are doing. They do, and they know just how far and how efficient our preparation is.

many to make still further overtures for peace than her understanding that America is doing the job of getting ready thoroughly.

If peace can be brought about it means the saving of millions of lives; if it cannot be brought about through the equipment will place our men in a position to best care for themselves and make the conflict of the shortest possible duration. To do anything less would be worse than criminal.

But all this preparation must be paid for by someone, and there is no one in the world to pay it but the people of the United States.

We find congress in a somewhat pensive frame of mind over spreading the burden on the people. Members should be given to understand that the people expect to pay the shot for this war, and the people should get in a frame of mind each to bear his share cheerfully.

There is no question about it; we have all got to give up goodly portions of our incomes to carrying on the war and we might as well adjust ourselves to it cheerfully—we should do it without a grumble, for it means the saving of lives of the young manhood of the country.

To be sure, congress owes another duty to the people besides merely spreading the taxes. It must see to it that they are wisely spent; that the horde of contractors seeking to flock to Washington are not turned into big profit-makers.

But while preparing we should be ready and anxious to make an honorable peace at the earliest possible moment—meaning keeping our powder dry.

The funeral of the late Nicholas Alter occurred this morning at St. Mary's Catholic church under the auspices of the Knights of St. John.

Mrs. Henrietta Griebel, aged 80 years, died this morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. C. Trankley, 106 West Washington street. Death resulted from extreme age.

W. M. Sater will represent the Fort Wayne letter carriers at the meeting of the National Association of Letter Carriers, which meets in Indianapolis August 23, 24 and 25.

Drs. and Mrs. S. B. Brown and H. C. Sites and Drs. S. B. Hartman, W. E. Weissel and J. S. McCurdy have returned from Niagara Falls, N. Y., where the doctors have been in attendance upon the meeting of the American Dental association.

Clark, the 2-year-old son of A. Kenton Clark, of 121 East Main street, swallowed the contents of a bottle of poison Saturday and fell in a convulsive faint. Dr. A. J. Boswell was called and at the time he arrived the child was apparently dying. Emetics were prescribed and a stomach pump used to save the little fellow's life.

About 8 o'clock last evening the 15-year-old son of George Meyers, who resides opposite the Moellering drug store, was playing with a Flobert gun, when the load was discharged, the ball entering the fleshy part of the hand, producing a painful wound. The lad's hand will be sore for a time but no serious result is likely. The wound was dressed by Dr. McCausland.

Polly Meyers, a 12-year-old girl, met with a painful accident at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Sauer, 188 Calhoun street, at noon today. Polly, whose mother is dead, makes her home with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hoffman, at 183 Calhoun street. Shortly after 12 o'clock Mr. Sauer's grandson, who is doing the household work during the illness of Mrs. Sauer, called Polly over to assist him in washing the dinner dishes. While thus engaged the gun, which had been left on the table, was fired and the ball entered the fleshy part of the hand, producing a painful wound. The lad's hand will be sore for a time but no serious result is likely. The wound was dressed by Dr. McCausland.

An attractive skin wins admiration. In social life and in business the girl or woman whose face and hands show evidence of constant care enjoys a tremendous advantage over those who do not realize the value of a healthy skin and a spotless complexion. At the cost of a small jar of ordinary cold cream one can prepare a full quart of the most wonderful skin softener and complexion beautifier, by squeezing the juice of two fresh lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of orchard white. Care should be taken to strain the juice through a fine cloth so no lemon pulp gets in, then this lotion will keep fresh for months. Every woman knows that lemon juice is used to cleanse and remove such blemishes as freckles, sallowness and tan, and is the ideal skin softener, smootheners and beautifier. Just try it! Get three ounces of orchard white at any pharmacy and two lemons from the grocer and make up a quart of this sweetly fragrant lemon lotion and massage it daily into the face, neck, arms and hands. It naturally should help to soften, freshen, bleach and bring out the roses and beauty of any skin.

SOCIETY

Mrs. Daniel Milligan, of Hoagland avenue, invited about seventeen young women who are intimate friends of her sister, Miss Mildred Bowser, to bring their sewing bags and knot comforters this morning. The knotting was in Miss Bowser's honor and at the luncheon of elegant appointment that followed the date of the wedding of Miss Bowser and her fiancé, Edward O'Rourke, was made. At each place a card as if he were ready to fly was a tiny bird and in its bill was a little card with September 28 on it. The colors of the decorations were blue and yellow and corn flowers and yellow snapdragon made the pretty combination in Japanese baskets in all the rooms. The luncheon tables were wholly charming in a similar color plan. Miss Bowser found a corsage of yellow rose buds at her place.

Not a Tattoo But a Tan Done by Sun

By BETTY BROWN.
The modern woman—or at least the modern bathing girls at this most modern of bathing beaches, Atlantic City—bear the mark of the man not in household drudgery but in initials tattooed on the arm. Cut the initials from courtplaster. Paste them on the arm. Bathe—but not too much, spending some time resting on the sand. And Old Sol will do the rest. The initials are outlined by the tan.

McKay-Bowser.
The residence of Mr. Allen A. Bowser of East Pontiac street, was the scene of a beautiful wedding on Wednesday afternoon at half past six o'clock, when Mr. Bowser's only daughter, Miss Jennie, and Mr. Frank Roddick McKay were married by Rev. G. F. Byrer, former pastor for ten years of Calvary U. B. church with which the bride and her family are affiliated. The bride was attended by her most intimate friend, Miss Melba Plunadore and Mr. and Mrs. Plunadore furnished the wedding music with violin and piano selections. Mr. McKay was attended by his brother, Mr. Jack McKay. The bride, who is young, very pretty and sweet of nature, looked as lovely as heart could desire in a simple but handsome gown of white tulle trimmed with tulle and with a veil of tulle. The bride wore a veil of tulle and a beautiful bouquet of orchids, rosebuds and lilies of the valley was a detail in keeping with the elegance of the costume. The bride came downstairs with her father preceded by Miss Plunadore who also presented a beautiful appearance in her costume of Nile green georgette crepe trimmed with bands of emerald and pearl beads. The bride's flowers were Ophelia roses. The house was decorated with many flowers and smilax that entwined the electroliters and the stairway, while ribbons extended from the stairway to standards that marked the stairway. The arrangement of palms and ferns. The standard vases were filled with pink roses, snapdragon and shasta daisies. Hanging vases of similar flowers marked the pathway of the bride and in all the rooms and on the porch there were jars and vases of gladioli, hydrangeas and other seasonal blossoms, which had been arranged by the Flick Floral company. Following the felicitations of the company to the bride and groom a wedding dinner was served. Presiding at the dinner were the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Bowser and her father and the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. David McKay were in the receiving line. Mr. Keller of the Country club, catered for the dinner. The bride's table was done with a handsome centerpiece of pink roses and swansonia and draped with smilax. Out of town guests at the wedding were Dr. and Mrs. Allen DeVillbiss, of Toledo, O.; Mr. Edwin DeVillbiss, of Chicago, a brother to the groom, and Mrs. Florence DeVillbiss, of Detroit, Mich. The bride went to Oak Wagon avenue.

Miss Thelma and Miss Tecla Wermuth were the bridesmaids and Messrs. Edwin Scheele and Clarence Hegerfeldt were groomsmen. Mrs. Helen Rehm played the wedding music and Miss Frieda Wermuth sang "O Promise Me" and "The Plains of Peace." Little Ruth Rehm bore the rings in a calla lily. The house was beautifully decorated with flowers, gladioli, sweetpeas and snapdragon in pink and white being used. The costumes of the bride's attendants expressed the same colors. The bride gown was a white georgette crepe and her bouquet was of white roses and swansonia. The bride wore a necklace of pearl beads which the groom gave her for a wedding gift. The bridesmaids wore either pink or a delicate tan crepe gowns and their flowers were pink. The little ring bearer was in white, with pink ribbons. The bride's table was done in sweetpeas and smilax with a big wedding cake for a centerpiece. AT THE PALACE
PRETTY BABY IS OPENER.
Jimmie Hodges and Jean Tynes in Broadway Production.

Jimmie Hodges, assisted by the sprightly Jean Tynes, supported by an unusually noteworthy company, will present the Broadway musical fun festival, Pretty Baby, as the opening attraction of the season at the New Palace the first four days of the coming week. In Pretty Baby the music has been made predominant, with the score embracing a number of catchy song hits, and the company selected with an eye cocked especially to their respective abilities to sing. Jimmie Hodges is more than a mere comedian, for he possesses a remarkably fine singing voice, which is given every opportunity in this show. Jean Tynes, Hodges co-star, is a pretty baby herself, and can dance like a nymph, while the chorus is just naturally scrumptious.

Daily matinees will be presented, the engagement closing Wednesday evening and the theater being dark on Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Is Mother Getting What's Coming to Her
BY BIDDY RYE.
The most overworked word in the language at present is "mother." It turns up in print and in conversation as often as "war."

Mothers are expected to sacrifice and to save—just as they always have done—but now their martyrdom is exalted and their labors extolled until mothers themselves are getting a bit shy of so much sentimentality.

Later a great national demand has been made upon mother to conserve everything, but has anybody heard anything about conserving mother? It would be easy to do so, if the family ever thought it worth while. Consider her vacation, for instance. Thousands of just average mothers have never had one in their lives. And they never expect to have one.

But father goes fishing, sometimes. And son goes camping. And the teacher or stenographer-daughter "takes a trip" every summer.

But mother's only trip is to an amusement park with the youngsters. Which can hardly be called a restful experience.

Whoever desires to help conserve mother would probably better begin at home. A practical step in the right direction would be to stop exclaiming about what mother has given up, and what she is saving, and what she is going to do, and see what can be done to help mother.

There's quite a difference between looking on mother as a wonderful sacrifice, and making some honest personal sacrifice for mother.

Boys' wash suits and rompers at one-half price. Sale starts tomorrow at 8 o'clock.

PATTERSON-FLETCHER CO.
SLIPON FOR ANY OCCASION CATCHES THE FEMININE EYE

One can have a sleeveless slipon of satin of duvetyne, of shetland or angora, of velvet, of silk jersey, or white serge, or almost any materials. Worn over a sheer white blouse and skirt that has some connection with the slipon it is a pleasant and attractive garment. It is also a nuisance, in that slipping it on is fairly sure to play havoc with a coiffure, but one does not consider questions of convenience in following the mode and the slipon idea seems to have caught the feminine fancy.

One even finds it introduced into smart coats, though anything less sensible and convenient than a coat that must be put on over the head it would be hard to find. The coat of this type usually buttons on one or both shoulders to make the head opening large enough for donning with something like ease; but several recent models merely have soft stand away collars set well out on the shoulders to give the shallow straight or oval neck line and allow for the wearer's head passing through the opening. Nonsensical, but France makes its fashion nonsense amusing.

As for slipon frocks and smocks and blouses, the shops are full of them and some of them are delightful, though adjusting them on any figure, save a slender one, is difficult.

Here's Comfort in Your Corset

By BETTY BROWN.
For comfort is comfort and style is style and never the twain shall meet—is no longer true of corsets. Here's a corset that's both stylish and comfortable. The new sveltline corset depends upon scientific designing, rather than upon laces and binders to achieve youthful lines and slender figures. It's the latest boon for women of ample architecture.

The Millinery Event of the Season.

PRETTY BOUDOIR CAPS ARE FACTOR IN THE HAPPY HOME.

There's no telling how many happy families are left secure, safe, altogether and intact because the madame wife knows the value of a pretty boudoir cap or because she neatly combs her hair before she leaves her room.

The scrubbed hairdresser, interspersed here and there with jackstraw wisps, is what the dear creature sees in the looking glass upon arising. Whether or not she puts the ban of prohibition on such a wild display of hirsute anarchy, her domestic happiness depends. Hence she follows the latest fashions in boudoir caps and saves heartache storms.

They're making caps of various printed fabrics, voiles and chiffons, and all those see-throughable materials which nevertheless will securely hide the scramble. Some of the models from Paris will up and put your eye out when you glance at the price marks, but they are worth it. One model in dotted swiss, embroidered in pink chenille, shows lingerie ruffles that rear up at the back like a peacock's tail. A printed voile is fenced all around with a plaiting that van-dykes down over the ears, but lifts up across the noble brow to give the eyes free play for rambling. Tissues, roses, motifs of beading, ruchettes and rosettes of ribbons and lace contribute their charm in the making of these fascinating little lambrequins that are placed about the windows of the soul.

THIS WAR GAME IS A VERY REALISTIC SHAM BATTLE AT THE UNITED STATES COAST ARTILLERY SCHOOL

A curtain is drawn between the class and the map while the instructor arranges the attacking forces. When the curtain is pulled back the men seated high on the platform issue orders to repel the invaders.

These pupils are picked from the country's training camps for officers, and most are graduates of post-graduate from leading technical schools.

SWOON AFTER SWOON RESTRAINS MEXICAN

Little Brother is Saved by Heroic Faints of Sister.

F. W. Ellison, who lives in the 2200 block on Winter street, has a small son and a daughter who is a young woman. The son is an active little fellow and the pride of the household. A. J. Hernandez, 2210 Winter street, employed at the Bowser plant, is a dark-eyed Mexican. He claimed, in police court Wednesday morning, that it was the Ellison lad who blackened his small daughter's eye and pasted paper on the cheek of his son. When the neighbor boy alarmed the Hernandez children last Friday evening the father started over to the Ellison home to seek an understanding. "Here comes the Mexican," screamed the grown-up daughter of the Ellison family, when Hernandez hurried across the street. "I no kill your little brother," explained the swarthy citizen. "He will kill little brother," shrieked the young woman. Then Miss Ellison fainted. She recovered and fainted again. She fainted three times in a row, she admitted to Judge H. W. Kerr Wednesday morning.

Hernandez retreated after the young woman had collapsed. Neighbors ran from their homes and aided in reviving the victim of the series of swoons. "One of the neighbors told in court that she had heard that the Mexican made the threat in regard to the little Ellison boy, 'I will kill the little devil.'"

Judge Kerr continued the case indefinitely. It was announced that Hernandez will move to another part of the factory neighborhood because the Mexican has learned that his neighbors fear his southern temperament and because he dislikes the unnecessary activity with which his small children are being played by the neighbor boys.

Hive No. 6, Maccabees, Presents Mrs. Closs With Gold Pin.

Hive No. 6, Ladies of the Maccabees, honored the retiring lady commander, Mrs. Catherine Closs, at the meeting Tuesday night, when they presented her with a magnificent gold pin, emblematic of the past lady commander's office. The presentation speech was made by Mrs. Aurelia Olinger, the record keeper. Mrs. Closs feelingly responded, thanking the members for the honor. She was lady commander for six consecutive years. A membership contest, which will entitle the winner to a free trip to Port Huron, Mich., to attend the dedication of the Maccabee temple in September, was inaugurated Tuesday night and promises to be hotly contested, there being a number engaged in it. It was also announced at the meeting that the free room at Hope hospital for L. O. T. M. members who are sick or injured, has been refurbished and is now ready for use.

The annual meeting of the Fort Wayne District Shorthorn Breeders' association was held Wednesday afternoon at the State bank in Huntington. Officers for the new year were to be elected. President A. P. Hottinger, of Avilla, presided at the meeting. Further plans for the big sale to be held some time in October were also to be made at this gathering. A definite date was to be decided upon. A report of the financial standing of the organization also was to be submitted. Will Johnson, county auditor and one of the prominent members and officers of the association, returned from Michigan, Tuesday evening, where he purchased seventeen head of cattle. All are fine specimens of shorthorn cattle and will be offered to the public at the second sale to be held. Mr. Johnson bought the entire herd of cattle owned by D. A. Curtis at Addison, Mich. He also bought several more near Hillsdale.

Firms throughout the city have offered to give valuable prizes for the winners in the potato patch and exhibition which will be given on Park avenue on August 15. The winners in the exhibition will be well paid for their trouble of placing potatoes in the contest.

Those persons and firms who have already offered prizes are: Patterson, Fletcher, William J. Vesey, S. F. Bowser, Citizens' Trust company, Robert Feustel, Otto Peters, D. & N. Drug store, Blue Cast Distributing company, Indiana Gas company, C. C. Southern, Maurice C. Niezer, Wayne Knitting Mills, and several more.

The committee on prizes will be elected at the meeting to be held Wednesday evening. This committee will determine the value of the prizes and place them in their respective order.

Officers will be elected at the meeting to be held Wednesday evening. The nominating committee has made its report and has recommended the following men as officers: Robert Feustel, president; Herbert Weil, secretary; Samuel W. Greenland, chairman of transportation committee; William Vesey, jr., amusement committee; Lew W. Ellingham, publicity committee; W. S. Wells, press agent.

Three speakers have been secured who will address the vast audience expected on the day of the exhibition. Senator James E. Watson will come to Fort Wayne and speak on "National Patriotism versus Politics." Avery Groves will speak on "Different Varieties of Patriotism," and E. W. Cook will speak on the subject, "Why a Potato Patch Patriot is a Brave Man."

Music will be provided and since Park avenue is one of the finest play streets in the city, a portion of it will be used for dancing purposes. Boy scouts will patrol the streets and look after the welfare of the public. The Red Cross society has begun its plans for the erection of stands where refreshments will be served.

MAY STILL GET INTO THE NAVY

Men Who Are Drafted Are Eligible Before Being Examined.

MANY ENLISTMENTS
ARE STILL SOUGHT
Local Officer Has Word on
Conscripts from Headquarters.

Contrary to the general opinion that the navy is filled up and that enlistments are not being sought, the service is still short 26,000 men, according to a statement made by A. G. Kaftan, officer in charge of the local naval recruiting station. The navy, he said, besides not discouraging application for enlistments is seeking them for various branches of the service.

A letter was received this morning by the local officer from the officer in charge, similar to those sent to all sub-stations which shows that men who have been called up for compulsory service under the draft law will be exempted if they can show that they have been accepted for the navy, providing the application for enlistment in the navy and the passing of the physical test has occurred before the army examination board.

The letter follows: "It is unnecessary to continue special efforts to enlist musicians, but make special efforts to enlist cooks and bakers. In cases where local exemption board exempt men for the purpose of enlisting in the navy their enlistment in the navy may be authorized if in all other respects qualified. "J. A. BELL."

Those needed most are cooks and bakers, apprentice seamen, firemen, musicians and radio men. Particular attention is called to the last class by the local officer, who states that radio operators may enlist for the period of the war and will be accepted between the ages of 18 and 40.

A big rush to get in the navy may develop when it is learned by those conscripted that good cause for exemption may be had if the person called up had applied and passed the physical examination for enlistment in the navy. This course can be taken, it is understood, even after a person has been notified to appear before the examining board for army service.

STRIKE RIOTS IN PORTUGAL BLOODY

Arrested for Attempting Revolution.

An Atlantic Post, Aug. 8.—A description of a labor upheaval in Lisbon, Portugal on July 11, only briefly hinted at previously in cable dispatches which seemed to threaten a revolution and resulted in the suspension of constitutional guarantees, was brought here today by Gilbert L. Robinson, representative of a shipping firm, who arrived from Lisbon. He said troops were called out and when a number of them were killed by bombs thrown among them they charged the crowds, killing eighty-five civilians and arresting 1,500. This broke the backbone of the uprising. Mr. Robinson, who spent some time in Portugal, said the trouble was precipitated by the demand by all classes of workmen for a 75 per cent wage increase to meet the high cost of living with a threat of a general strike if denied.

The government refused to allow the enforcement of their demands, Mr. Robinson said, and when rioting began called out the military.

PROHIBITION GETS BLOW IN VIRGINIA

Dry Candidate for Governor
Loses Out in Primaries
to Wet Opponent.

Richmond, Va., Aug. 8.—Returns from the democratic gubernatorial primary continue to indicate the nomination of Westmoreland Davis, the London county farmer and lawyer, who ran independently and in opposition to J. Taylor Ellyson, the democratic organization candidate.

Davis is opposed to the prohibition constitutional amendment and his choice is regarded as a blow at the prohibition forces, which made the state dry last November.

Prohibitionists attribute Davis' victory to a split in the dry vote between Ellyson and John G. Pollard, who also sought the nomination, which is equivalent to election.

TWO MEETINGS HELD TODAY

Explained at Two Local Plants.

ALL BETWEEN 16
AND 21 TO REGISTER
President Howe, of Butler, and Attorney Stump, Chicago, Are the Speakers.

Two meetings were held in the interest of the boys' reserve movement at local factories Wednesday. One at the plant of the Wayne Oil Tank and Pump company and the other at the Duddle Manufacturing company plant. Albert Stump, an attorney of Chicago, spoke to the assemblage at the oil tank plant and Professor T. C. Howe, president of Butler college, Indianapolis, addressed the meeting at Duddle's. The effort in behalf of the movement met with an enthusiastic response. The speakers explained some of the details of the plan by which youthful workers will be enrolled and twenty-one must register, according to the edict of the department of labor, but stated enrollment does not necessarily follow.

Boys will be encouraged to do farm work and also replace men taken out of factories. It is not the idea of department of labor that boys will be taken away from home and this will not be done because it is recognized that they should have parental care. Bronze medals will be awarded by the government to boys who stay on the job three weeks or more. Those in charge of the movement want it understood that there is nothing in the work of military character and that the boys who enroll will be vastly benefited from the training. A. L. McDonald, who is in charge of the boy scout activities in this city arranged the meetings here and has scheduled two meetings Thursday. Mr. Stump will speak at the plant of the S. F. Bowser & Co., and Professor Howe at the Bass company.

AMERICAN DEAD IN FRENCH CAMP BY AN ACCIDENT

Paris, Aug. 8.—John Verplanck Newlin, of Whiteford, Pa., an American field service member who was seriously wounded by a shell at his post on August 3, died in a hospital at the front on August 5. Newlin, according to the Paris edition of the New York Herald, was a member of section 29 and left Paris less than a month ago.

RETURNS FROM ZIONVILLE.

Judge Samuel M. Hench, department commander of the Indiana G. A. R., returned Wednesday from Zionville, where he spoke at the Old Soldier's day celebration at the Zion Park Assembly. Judge Hench also spent some time in Indianapolis, and while there attended a meeting of the state board of control of the soldiers and sailors' monument. This board has enacted a rule to prevent the parking of automobiles around the monument, which act was approved by the governor.

FORD IS DESERTED.

Presumably a driver of a Ford after his patience had reached an end, deserted his machine on the Decatur road, near the city limits. Sheriff George W. Gilje was notified and he is at a loss to know who the car belongs to. Everything of any consequence value had been taken from the car. Officials also are of the opinion that the car has been stolen and that thieves took the valuables which they could move with them.

TO BE FILLED UP BY NIGHT

Regular Army Enlistments
Will Continue, However,
Says Major Ryan.

OPEN OFFICE IN
THE COURT HOUSE
Accept Enlistments Now for British Expeditionary
Forces.

Starting the day with but 3,000 vacancies in the United States regular army, it was the opinion of Major Thomas F. Ryan, of the Fort Wayne recruiting station, that the regular army would be completely filled up by night.

Enlistments will, however, continue, states the major, and those who enlist after the army is filled will be placed in the reserves and will be assigned to regular duty as vacancies occur.

Sixty men are wanted at once for field artillery and the major announced that all men who wish to enlist in any branch of the national guard should apply at the regular army recruiting office. An office has been opened in the lobby of the Allen county court house.

Enlistments in the British and Canadian expeditionary forces will also be accepted at the regular army recruiting station and will be sent directly to Chicago or New York city, as the case may be. Those who enlist in this branch, however, must be British subjects.

Thirty-five men were sent from the Fort Wayne station to Fort Thomas, Ky., Tuesday evening and an equally large number is expected to leave Wednesday evening. Major Ryan urges that all men who wish to get in ahead of the draft enlist at once, as the choice of service is gradually getting smaller each day.

MR. TAFT IMPROVES.

Clay Center, Kas., Aug. 8.—The condition of former President William H. Taft, who became suddenly ill here Monday night, was improved today, according to physicians who decided, however, that it would be advisable for him to remain in his room again today. He probably will leave for Lincoln Neb., tomorrow. Mr. Taft became ill after delivering an address here.

CORN CROP THE HEAVIEST EVER PRODUCED HERE

Washington, Aug. 8.—The largest crop of corn ever grown in the United States is in prospect for the coming harvest. The department of agriculture's August report, issued today, showed corn prospects improved to the extent of 67,000,000 bushels during July. The total production for 1917 is estimated at 1,450,000,000 bushels.

indicated 15,000,000 bushels more than forecast in July. Wheat production, winter wheat and spring wheat combined now is forecast at 653,000,000 bushels.

Totals for other crops are forecasted as follows in the estimates: Oats, 1,450,000,000 bushels; barley, 233,000,000 bushels; rye, 13,000,000 bushels; buckwheat, 13,000,000 bushels.

Overtime Exhibition Contest Won by Locals at Lima, O.

Base Running by Chiefs is Feature of Benefit
Game.

Lima, O., Aug. 8.—The Chiefs stepped in and won a game from the Vets, a ten inning affair, which ended 5 to 4, and showing evidently that the ones that don't count, it being an exhibition contest, are the ones that the Chiefs can get. If yesterday's game had been one of the regularly scheduled league games instead of a little pastime for the delectation of Lima baseball fans, of whom approximately 1,200 turned out, Fort Wayne would not be fettered with the lowly Vets on the bottom rung of the pennant ladder.

However, it was a great game and it was for the benefit of the players which should have proven some benefit, too, for they certainly turned out en masse to see real league ball in this town.

In the extra inning Siegfried smashed out a clean three-bagger and came on in when Kelly batted a long fly to center. The Vets in their half tried to even things up but were unable to do so. Schetter doubled and was followed by Nee, who singled to right. Koeppling laid down a bunt in front of the plate and reached first, but Schetter was caught at the plate. Nee was out at third. Hobbs singled and was caught napping, which ended the game.

The Chiefs were much faster on the bases than their opponents and this fact probably cost the game for Dayton. Each side got twelve hits. Manager Vandagriff having a good day, getting three hits out of five times up.

THIS ONE DIDN'T COUNT.

LEFT, COMPOSITE OF COBB, SPEAKER, COLLINS, HERZOG AND BUSH. RIGHT, COMPOSITE OF ALEXANDER, SISLER AND SCHALK.

(By Paul Purman).

Mr. Fan, if you were a baseball magnate how would you like to have these two fellows on your club?

One of them would hit, play the outfield and run bases like Cobb and Speaker and cover the infield positions like Herzog, Collins and Bush.

He would combine the fighting spirit of Herzog, the fire of the Georgia peach and the indomitable will of Tris Speaker with the good time in the trial races, and Miss Minneapolis probably will be forced to equal her world's record of 66.66 miles per hour to retain the gold challenge cup.

With a view to eliminating all possibility of accidents to the racing craft, officials of the government high dam are making preparations to lower the river temporarily to remove obstructions from the race course.

Wouldn't he be a wonder? Hitting like that quinter, there would be scarcely a pitcher who would ever find a weak spot in his batting. He would "hit anything" and would pile up an average of well over .500 against the cream of the big leagues.

With Cobb's speed and craft he would beat out innumerable bunts and infield hits and with the combined speed and sagacity of the five he would steal bases almost at will.

In the outfield he would combine Speaker's uncanny ability to guess where a man is going to hit and his throwing accuracy with Cobb's trickiness.

In the infield he would cover ground with the speed of Bush, the cunning of Collins and the dash of Herzog.

And, Mr. Fan, you probably wouldn't turn down the other player, a combined pitcher, catcher and first baseman.

He would serve you Alexander's dazzling speed and bewildering curves from his right hand and then would turn around and feed you southpaw slants such as Sisler can shoot over when he is in the box.

Or he would go behind the plate with the brains, speed and accuracy of Ray Schalk, where he would get more out of his pitchers than any other catcher, nip base runners and gobble up every foul and bunt in his territory.

Or he would go down on first base and cover as much ground as any other man in the game today.

What would a magnate pay for either of these players?

Well, let's see. Speaker was sold for $50,000. Either of these men would be worth several Speakers.

Busy's Lassic took the first heat in the fastest time on the track this season, 2:04 1/2, but Early Dreams came back and equalled the mark, winning the next heat in the same time identically. Early Dreams captured the first heat in 2:06. Busy's Lassic showed that she was tiring and was not a contended from that time on. Ima Jay making her first start of the season, got away in front and won the next heat. Early Dreams was driven the whole distance in the next event and won by two lengths.

EDDIE HART IN SERVICE.

Atlanta, Ga., Aug. 8.—One of the greatest football players ever produced at Princeton—Eddie Hart—is a private here training with the Seventh regiment of engineers. Hart was a star of the gridiron and was captain of the Tigers in 1910-1911. Most of the experts picked Hart for the All-American team. Many also named him for captain on the All-American.

ANOTHER TWO-TIMER FOR NEXT SUNDAY

Lincoln Lives Will Meet

Winners of Hicksville-Convoy Game.

Another double-header is on the schedule for League park next Sunday, this two-timer being in the nature of a three-cornered affair, with the Hicksville Browns and the Convoy Grays meeting in the first game. The Lincoln Lives will play the winners of the first game.

There is intense rivalry between the Hicksville and Convoy teams, and the first game is sure to be a battle. The first game will start at 2 o'clock, new time. Hicksville and Convoy fans are worked up over the game and a big delegation is sure to be present for the clash between the two Ohio towns.

Both Hicksville and the Lincoln Lives are up near the top in the Indiana-Ohio league, and a battle between these two teams is certain to be worth while.

COLLEGE SPORTS.

Pay Dice, Kewanee, Ill., star long distance runner and football man at Lombard college, applied today to fly with Ruth Law at the Galesburg district fair. He recently graduated from the aviation school at Ft. Mich.

Because of the late opening of the University of Minnesota this year it is unlikely that the football games scheduled with the University of North Dakota and the University of South Dakota, will be played, according to Dr. H. L. Williams, Gopher football coach. College will not open at Minneapolis this fall until Oct. 10, and as the games with the Dakota elevens had been set for dates previous to this it is probable that they will be canceled.

At least seventy-five University of Wisconsin athletes have enlisted in the navy for service. The honor roll includes football, baseball, basketball and track men. Thirty-four are at Fort Sheridan and at least eighteen are in the aviation corps. When the athletic department was asked to recommend men for various branches of the army, especially the aviation corps, it immediately recommended about sixty-five.

Besides those who had already been accepted there in aviation now are: A. A. Schardt, cross country; A. I. Mathe, track; H. Bondi, football; Stanley Wanzer, cheer leader; H. Gatton, football; Gerald Wroe, basketball; L. Griffith, track; James Payton, football; G. Jackson.

track; J. P. Davies, football; R. E. Hartman, W. Lester, basketball; R. Benson, R. Jacobson, football; Frank Youngman, basketball; W. B. Goldie, track; J. W. Casey, L. Quirk, track.

Harry Marshall, of the track team, is the only one in submarine service.

TWO CHIEFS RELEASED AND ANOTHER SIGNED

Higbee and Williams Let Go and Southpaw Warmoths Added to Staff.

A slight shakeup came to the camp of the Chiefs last evening when it was announced by Secretary John Essig on his return to this city that Pitcher Mark Higbee and Shortstop Williams had been released. Along with this announcement came the news that another pitcher, Warmoth, a southpaw, had been signed.

Warmoth comes with a big reputation, having been given a tryout with the St. Louis Nationals two years ago. He was later termed by the Cardinals to the Hannibal club of the Three-I league. He refused to report to that club and went to Mt. Carmel, Ill., where he engaged in semi-pro ball for the remainder of the season. He is now a free agent, and should strengthen the locals a great deal.

Siegfried has been moved to short, and Roberts, who is supposed to be a pitcher, but who can hit as well as any of them, will perform in left field for the remainder of the season. It is not known what will become of Higbee. The red-haired heaver performed well at times, but was always the victim of hard luck in the way of poor support and lack of hitting behind him.

Ladies! Keep It on The Dresser

Few drops on corn or callus stops pain, then they lift off.

Your high heels have put corns on your toes and calluses on your feet, but why care now? This tiny bottle holds an almost magic fluid. A genius in Cincinnati discovered this ether compound and named it Frezzone. Small bottles of Frezzone can be had at any drug store for a few cents. Never limp or twist your face in pain again, but get a bottle of Frezzone and apply a few drops on your tender, aching corn or callus. Instantly the soreness disappears and shortly you will find the corn or callus so shriveled and loose that you lift it off with fingers. Just think! You get rid of a hard corn, soft corn or a corn between the toes, as well as hardened calluses, without suffering one particle, without the slightest irritation of the surrounding skin. Just a touch of Frezzone on a sore corn gives instant relief.

Prof. Wm. Miles, head of the music department of the Fort Wayne City schools, heard Willmarth Paine sing "Hooray for Uncle Sam" at Robison Park. SUNBURN TATTOO ON MERMAID'S ARM LATEST WAR MEMORY STUNT

VIVIAN HAYNES AND HER SUNBURN TATTOO. She proved her devotion to her "Soldier Boy" by permitting Old Sol to engrave the soldier's initials and regiment number on her arm.
This is the way the new idea works out. Take a piece of court plaster, cut the initials and design you wish to register on your arm. Paste it on the arm and the sun does the rest.
You must wear your sleeveless bathing suit, of course. The sun tans your arm a fine, brown color. The court plaster is then taken off, leaving the initials and design neatly engraved in white flesh.
Mermaids along the Pacific coast are going in strong for the new fad.

FIVE YOUNG MEN HAD FAILED TO REGISTER

All of Them Turned Over to Sheriff Gillie for Federal Investigation.

Five cases of young men who have not registered showed up in police court Wednesday morning. They were all bound over to Sheriff Gillie with instructions to institute a federal investigation.
Joe Brown, 28, employed on the railroad at Auburn, said he had been told that he was too old to register. He does not read.
Ray Wallace, colored, taken from a Wabash freight train, says he is nineteen years old. He was born in 1897, he says. The judge believes him to be twenty-one.
Wilbur Cox, colored, partner of Wallace, also claims to be nineteen. "When were you born?" queried the prosecutor.
"I am not going to say when I was born," said Cox, taking advantage of the mistake made by Wallace.
"How do you know you are nineteen?" asked the prosecutor.
"Cause they told me I was seventeen two years ago," answered the colored fellow.
Al Ewing and Howard North, both colored, claiming to be twenty years old, are also believed to be of considerable age.
Trampled Garden.
Elmer Fremoin, 26, did not securely tie the horse belonging to Louis Koehler, a brother of John "Sammy" Koehler, and for whom Fremoin has worked. The horse got loose, Friday night, and trampled the garden of Burton Bailey, 3028 Lafayette street. Neighbors corroborated the statement that fifty-one hills of corn were destroyed. Damage was set at $10.
Fremoin was fined $20 and costs on a malicious trespass charge.
"We won't stand the fine," said Koehler, but later he assisted in paying the court $30.
Other Police Court Cases.
Lee Heller parked his auto near a water plug. He was fined $5 and costs.
Jefferson Meyers was fined $10 and sentenced to thirty days in jail on an intoxication charge. Oliver Maland was fined $5 on a like complaint. John Welsh will be tried on Thursday.

"Automobile Row" is all-a-flutter today and somewhat surprised at a new turn of events that has just come about. The cause for all this being the fact that the Schiefer Auto company has taken on the local agency of the famous and popular "Chevrolet" line of cars for the 1918 season. The "Chevrolet" line will materially strengthen the agency of the Schiefer Auto company and fits in well with the other car this hustling firm are distributors for, the Paige.
The new 1918 models of the Chevrolet are now here on the floor of the Schiefer Auto company, and are receiving very favorable comments from all who have so far seen them.

CARTOONIST SATTERFIELD SKETCHES SCENES IN OKLAHOMA'S DRAFT REBELLION.

The Daily Sentinel commissioned "Bob" Satterfield, the well known cartoonist, who has been doing some on-the-spot sketches of the country and incidents in southeast Oklahoma's "draft rebellion." Here's the first step of Satterfield's work. He shows a typical sheriff of the old Indian country: a few of the negro rioters who are seeking to evade army service, with armed possemen guarding them; a night silhouette of flivvers commandeered by the sheriff for the chase; and a drawing indicating the kind of rough hill country in which the slackers are entrenched. There'll be more sketches tomorrow if Satterfield doesn't meet the fate of the cartoonist by

ALL OLD MEN INVITED ON WOMAN'S DAY

When the Congress of Old Ladies is held at Robison park on Thursday, August 16, a new feature will be added. Heretofore, only the elderly women have been invited to attend the congress. This year we are extending an invitation to their husbands to come with them. No more inspiring, uplifting sight can be seen than an aged couple, both of whom have reached three score years and ten. Companions throughout the years that are gone, they are still the playmates of youth. Life with all its struggles has not shaken their love and devotion. As life's years have passed, leaving only memories, these two have gone on, hand in hand, happy in one another's presence. The children have come, lingered a while, and gone to build homes for themselves. Still the fires of devotion, pledged in those younger days, burn on. So bright are their beams that today's pathway is lighted by its undying light. As we honor the wife and mother, we want the husband and father—the companion of all the yesterdays—to be our guests also. We invite you to spend Woman's Day with us, and not only you but all old men whose wives have been our guests in former years. Some of these may now be too feeble to come, while others may have passed to the great beyond. We would be glad to have you, who have walked with them through so many years, as our guests. We will present to each one of you a cane as an expression of our pleasure at your presence at the congress this year. We invite you to march at her side in the parade and carry a flag.

LITTLE SON OF THE DESAULLES HAS BEEN FOUND

Mineola, N. Y., Aug. 8.—All mystery about John Longer DeSaulles, the 4½-year-old son of Mrs. DeSaulles, who shot and instantly killed her divorced husband when he refused to give up the child last Friday to her care, was cleared today when he was found in the care of G. Maurice Hecksher, DeSaulles' business partner. Counsel for Mrs. DeSaulles was expected to make an appeal to Mr. Hecksher today that the mother, who is confined in the county jail here on a charge of first degree murder, might be allowed to see her son. Should this appeal fail, it was said, legal action would probably be taken.

The funeral services for DeSaulles were held today.

ONCE JACK DE SAULLES, FRECKLED LAD OF FIVE, HAD TOO MANY PARADISES; NOW HE HAS NONE—SAND PILE AND SWING PARADISES ARE DESERTED

The Airedale Terrier at His Father's House is Lonely and the Little Boy of Tragedy is at His Third Home Within a Week.

By FREDERICK M. KERBY. (Staff Special.)

New York, Aug. 8.—A bright, serious faced boy, not yet quite five, light hair but eyes dark—that's little Jackie De Saulles, central figure in the most dramatic tragedy of mother love the country's court annals record.

A few days ago too many hands grasped for Jackie. That was his trouble then. Today all those parental hands do not grasp, but are bound—by death or the law.

The child's eyes are troubled. Their trouble was that both father and mother reached eagerly for him. Their trouble is that now neither reaches.

Two—both famed, both rich, both cultured—fought for the chance to shower all the tokens of devotion a parent thus dowered can give. Today one is dead and the other in prison.

Once Jackie De Saulles' chief shadow was that he had a father and a mother. Now the shadow is that he has neither—and may never have.

The accurate bullets with which Bianca Erruzariz De Saulles, Chilean beauty and heiress, killed John L. De Saulles, Yale gridiron hero, sportsman, political leader, successful business man and society favorite, whom she had divorced nine months ago, solved no problem for their son Jackie.

The boy, who witnessed the tragedy at his father's home, "The Box," in the Long Island millionaire colony, has been spirited away by the father's relatives, who fear he may be taken from them, even though the young mother is in Mineola jail.

In the few years of his life Jackie De Saulles has never had a wish denied—and yet he has never been quite happy.

Since the decree of divorce granted Mrs. De Saulles last December, Jackie has had two homes, two playgrounds, two sets of governesses, two beautiful, wide-spreading lawns, two outdoor miniature child's paradises.

He has had a pony, dogs, birds and other pets. He has had a private shooting gallery for his boy's bows and arrows. He has had a specially built chute-the-chutes; a wonderful seashore sandpile; a big swing and a splendid see-saw.

But—Jackie has not been happy. For Jackie knew—although he did not understand—that something was wrong.

His father lived at the beautiful bungalow near the Meadowbrook Hunt club, while his mother had rented "The Crossways," near Roslyn, L. I.

He had to leave his mother's house in the big automobile every time he wanted to visit his father. And when he was comfortably enjoying the see-saw, the swing and the chute-the-chutes on his father's lawn, he had to go back to that other playground if he wanted to see his mother. And now Jackie has been taken from both playgrounds by Mrs. August Hecksher, of Huntington, a cousin of De Saulles.

Mrs. De Saulles never was able to understand why the court had granted

The Airedale terrier at his father's house is lonesome. And the big white bull pup, which his mother brought with her in the taxicab on the night of the shooting, is in the care of the black butler at "The Crossways."

A freckled, tanned little boy, with hair cut straight around the back just below the ears, has gone to a new home—the third in a week.

Three who will never be together again—Big and Little Jack De Saulles and Bianca De Saulles. The boy came between them, first as a barrier, leading to De Saulles' death at the hands of the wife who had divorced him.

CARRIER PIGEONS WANTED.

Boston, Aug. 8.—An appeal to owners of carrier pigeons to send their names to the headquarters of the aviation section of the signal officers' reserve corps was made today by Lieutenant Charles J. formation obtained behind the enemy lines and that this method might be adopted to some extent by American aviators.

DETACHMENT ORDERED OUT

Seven Members of Company B, Signal Corps, Leave for Indianapolis. BOYS GET WORK OUT EACH DAY. Company E Expects to Get Summons Order by First of Next Week.

Orders for the headquarters and supply detachment of Company B, signal corps, to report to the adjutant of the battalion at Indianapolis at once were received Wednesday morning. Seven Fort Wayne boys left Indianapolis at 9 o'clock.

Those men who are in this detachment and who departed Wednesday morning are: Albertson Romberg, Dale D. Davis, Virgil Roy, Harold Lewis, Harold Fackler, Robert Overholser and Ralph Gordon.

It is believed that these men will be kept at the office of the battalion adjutant to do clerical work. Work of this nature is immense just previous to the calling out of the units. Officers of the company state that it is their opinion that the company will receive orders to report at Fort Benjamin Harrison the first of next week. The calling of the headquarters detachment also carries out this belief still further.

Many of the members of the signal corps and the new members of Company E, the other national guard unit which mobilized last Sunday, are suffering from the heat as drilling is going on each day with might and main.

For the purpose of securing money for the company fund, Company E will give an ice cream social in the market square Saturday night. One thousand tickets have been distributed, but it is hoped that five or six thousand people will attend.

Company E is also expected to leave the city the middle of next week.

the necessity of "a powerful peace" was printed in black face type. Reports to the Associated Press from Germany say that Dr. Michaelis now has been hailed by the advocates of greater Germany as a new Bismarck and an enthusiastic orator of a delegation from an independent committee.

For German peace which saw Michaelis at the Dresden railway station made a wildly applauded speech, greeting him as a worthy successor of the old blood and iron chancellor.

Dr. Michaelis, according to the published reply to the speech was modestly silent regarding it.

Opposed by Socialists. German socialists will oppose the newly constituted government at Berlin on principle, the socialist newspaper Vorwarts declares in its comment on the ministerial appointments.

"Persons so foolish as to expect a great gain in the direction of a parliamentary regime," says the Catholic newspaper Germania, "will naturally be disappointed," but it expresses the opinion that the presence of Catholic representatives in the government greatly improves the system.

It appears that Dr. Spahn, leader of the Catholic center party in the reichstag, will be forced to retire from parliamentary life on account of his appointment as Prussian minister of justice. He must resign his seat owing to the constitutional provision upon accepting the portfolio, but it is asserted there is nothing to prevent his standing for re-election. He will accordingly do this, though he cannot become a member of the bundesrath.

August Worms, leader of the Flemish movement in Belgium, said in an interview in the newspaper Tegelblatt, the aim of the movement was the re-establishment of Belgium as a dual monarchy of Flanders and Wallonia, under King Albert. Herr Worms took Austria-Hungary as an example of the movement for free Flanders in free Belgium.

raided the enemy's trenches last night near Lombardville and captured a few prisoners and a machine gun.

"The enemy's artillery was active during the night to the east and north of Ypres, particularly in the neighborhood of Westhoek and the Ypres-Staden railway."

RUSSIANS STILL RETREAT.

London, Aug. 8.—The Newspaper Novoye Vremya of Petrograd reports that the Russians have evacuated Proskurov, in Podolia, on the Bug, as well as Kamenets-Podolsk, fifty-five miles south.

CROWN PRINCE REPULSED.

Paris, Aug. 8.—Troops of the German crown prince last night launched attacks on the French positions east of Vauxaillon and west of the Calvignac plateau, in the Aisne region.

The official statement issued today by the French war office says that all the attacks were repulsed.

German raids north of St. Mihiel in the Verdun sector, and in upper Alsace were checked by the French fire.

On the greater part of the Aisne front the statement adds there was a heavy mutual artillery fire.

LABOR CONFERENCE PUT OFF.

London, Aug. 8.—The entente ally labor conference which was scheduled to open in London today to consider the question of sending representatives to the Stockholm conference has been postponed until the end of August at the request of the French socialists.

CHARLES TO WILLIAM.

Vienna, Aug. 8.—Emperor Charles, of Austria-Hungary, sent from Czernowitz, the capital of Bukovina, recently captured by the Austro-German forces, a message to the German emperor congratulating him on the success of the "brave troops which with the aid of the Almighty" effected the deliverance of the Austrian crown land of Bukovina.

The Austrian emperor said: "May the Lord continue to aid in faithful co-operation in the future with the fullness of His blessings."

Emperor William replied that the joy of the people of Bukovina would be echoed in Germany and he added his prayers that God would help the Teutonic allied troops in the future.

Gen. von Koeves, who commanded the Austrian forces in Bukovina, has been appointed a field marshal by Emperor Charles.

ON ITALIAN FRONT.

Rome, Aug. 8.—There were lively encounters on the Trentino front yesterday between Austro-Hungarian and Italian patrols, says the report issued by the Italian war department. Italian air squadrons on Monday and Tuesday dropped four tons of high explosives on the Austrian military huts in the Chiapovano valley, causing great destruction.

ON RUMANIAN FRONT.

Berlin, Aug. 8.—North of Fokshani, on the Rumanian front, the forces of the central powers and their allies extended their success, says the official statement issued today by the German war office.

GERMANY CLOSE HOTELS.

Amsterdam, Aug. 8.—The four principal hotels in the Hartz mountains in northwest Germany have been closed by the authorities in connection with clandestine dealings in meat, according to dispatches received here. The closing of several more hotels and food stores is expected.

REPORTS ALLY REPULSE.

Berlin, Aug. 8.—Western front: Repeated strong entente attacks between Draibank and Eberbach, north-east of Ypres, were repulsed by the Germans.

GERMAN OFFICIAL REPORT.

Berlin, Aug. 8.—British forces after artillery bombardment of drum fire intensely last night pressed forward from Neuport, on the coastal sector of the Belgian front, but were driven back and had to hand fighting.

It was officially announced today by the German army headquarters staff.

TWO BOARDS FINISH WORK

district No. 3 announces that 350 more men to be examined. The board of the first district, however, states that judgment will first be passed on the claims for exemption before more men are called in.

The first district board which met at the Harmer school accepted seventy-six men who waived exemption. Thirty-two failed to report and unless they have been officially announced today by the German army headquarters staff.

The artillery action in Flanders, the statement adds, increased during the night to greater intensity.

but who have failed to appear before the selection board. Most of all of the districts have reported such cases.

It is believed that in most of these cases the men simply have neglected to do their duty and that they do not realize the position they place themselves in by such a course. The fact is, as has been explained, that any man called who fails to appear before the board for examination thereby automatically becomes a soldier. He has lost his chance for exemption, even if he had expected to make such a claim.

There has been no indication, as far as can be learned, of any concerted attempt on the part of tardy ones to evade the draft, but the United States officials will also look after that phase of the matter.

District Three Calls Men.

District No. 3, Fort Wayne, the largest of the local districts to examine men called to the colors from Allen county and the first to start the physical examinations, has completed the process for the number from which the first quota was to have been drawn. Although no figures are available now on the number of men examined who will either be exempted or have been found physically unfit, it is evident that the opinion of the local board is that the estimate first made has been found far short to supply the allotment required.

The board of the Third district is not awaiting official word to send out the additional notices, but is preparing the notices for the men called to appear for physical examination and to give reason why they should not become a part of the new national army.

The action on the part of the local board indicates that it believes that only a small per cent of those already called before it will be acceptable for service when the rejection for physical disability and exemptions are figured out.

To show that the estimates on the necessary number to fill the general quota are much below what will actually prove necessary, it is pointed out that only 306 notices were originally sent out and the board is preparing to send out Wednesday or Thursday notices for 350 more men to appear Monday morning before the examining board of District No. 3 at the Hoagland school house. The men drawn, of course, as has been done before, will be examined in the order of their liability numbers.

The action of the board cannot be taken to mean that the whole examination claims are going to be allowed, however, as the board itself is as yet in the dark on this subject and such claims have not yet been taken up, and the sending out of the greatly increased number of names can be partly accounted for by the fact that a great many rejections have been made.

Today was the last day for filing claims for exemption for the men who have already been called up and provided no physical disability has been found, will be next called to report.

HAVE HOPE OF RUSSIA

member of the mission who recently withdrew from the socialist party in this country, declared vigorously that the chief duty of the United States is to convince the Russian people that the United States is in the war to the finish.

"I cannot emphasize too strongly," Mr. Russell said, "that this country should present a united front. The Russian people are not united at the present time, but they are in such a frame of mind that they easily can be united if the American people only will convince them that this nation stands solidly behind its allies in this war and will not falter."

"The newspapers of the United States have a great duty to perform in presenting the situation in this country as it really is. Talk of peace at this time and arguments against sending our boys to France is utter rot."

"We must go through this war to the end and our citizens must make up their minds to that effect. Slacker, peace and home guard talk has no place in this situation at present."

"I am greatly encouraged by conditions in Russia. They are becoming better all the time. Even during the four weeks that I was in Petrograd I noticed a great change. I spent virtually all of the time with the workmen's council, which is really the government of Russia, and I know that the people are gradually getting behind the government more strongly each day. Of course they have sentimental and peculiar people, but they are anxious to make a fight for the right and if we will do our share they certainly will do theirs. The whole question of the future of Russia now lies with the United States."

Russians Need Railroads.

James Duncan, a representative laborer on the commission, expressed the opinion that development of railroad facilities is the greatest problem now facing the Russian people. Conditions in all other lines will work out, he said, if the transportation is solved.

"The outlook for the new republic is bright," he said. "The people are pleased that the United States has gotten into the war and its entrance has had a wonderful effect on the morale."

"All they need is better transportation facilities to move troops, munitions, etc. They have plenty of munitions on hand and if they can solve the railroad problem they will fight like lions."

Ambassador Bakmeteff, of Russia, Counselor Polk, of the state department, Samuel Gompers president of the American Federation of Labor, and other officials were among those who met the commission at the train.

sovereignty itself and the doctrine of eminent domain and the police power. It further states that if the mines are taken over on a scale of prices can be established by the state government and changed from time to time to meet varying conditions.

Coal mine owners do not dispute the right of the state to seize the mines, said Herbert H. Taylor, of the Taylor Coal company, and member of the operators committee with the council.

"We claim, however, that the council has not ascertained conditions within the coal industry and its recommendations are not made on thorough investigations."

"I don't want to make any statement in this time of national emergency," Taylor said, "but I am sure that the coal industry is not in a position to meet the requirements of the war."

GOVERNORS RESPOND.

Chicago, Aug. 8.—Practically all of the governors of sixteen states from Pennsylvania to Kansas, had responded favorably today to an invitation extended yesterday by the Illinois council of defense, to attend a conference in Chicago on August 16, for the purpose of bringing about a uniform regulation of the price for coal.

SUMMARY OF THE DAY'S WAR NEWS

Belgian coast which the Germans beat off in hand to hand fighting. This operation is recorded in the British official statement as a successful raid near Lobertz, in which the British captured a few prisoners and a machine gun. Judging from the German statement there were further raids in force by entente troops on other portions of the German lines on the Flanders front.

On the French front in the Aisne region new attacks were made by the crown prince of Yuxvillon and west of the Calvignac plateau. They were repulsed. There is considerable artillery activity all along the Aisne front.

The Germans who broke into the Russian-Rumanian lines near Fokshani extended their success yesterday, today's Berlin statement reports.

from Roosevelt, while still others went by automobile to Rice, where they expected to obtain horses for the ride to the mines.

First news of the trouble, which began yesterday morning when the Indian and Mexican help employed in the asbestos mines went on strike for higher pay, was received last night in a telephone message from a stranger who had ridden twenty-five miles to give the alarm. The ranger reported that the Indians had set fire to the forests and had been prevented from burning the mine buildings only by prompt action of the guards.

Another telephone message was received saying that the nine white men in the camp had been driven into a dugout on the mountain side and were surrounded by the Indians and Mexicans. The men in the dugout were said to be supplied with only a few rounds of ammunition and a small quantity of provisions, and it was feared they would not be able to withstand the combined assault of the strikers and the forest fire.

Because of the lack of communication all messages having to be carried on horseback twenty-five miles to a telephone, details of the uprising are not yet known here, but reports indicated that the organizers of the I. W. W., one a Mexican who speaks the Apache tongue, had been working among the men for the last week and had instigated the strike.

ONE-THIRD OF THE STATE'S QUOTA SOON

Thirty-Three Per Cent of Draft Men Go to Camp About Sept. 1.

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 8.—One-third of the quota of each state for the new national army probably will be ordered to enter for camp between September 1 and 5, according to a telegram received today by Jesse Eschbach, state conservation agent, from General Crowder, provost marshal, at Washington. The message said the war department expected to call not to exceed one-third of the quota between those dates to proceed to the training camps. The local conscription boards in the meantime, the message said, should certify daily to the district appeal boards, lists of names of men called who have not been exempted or discharged, either because they did not file claims for exemption or their claims were disallowed. To meet the requirements of the war department, Mr. Eschbach was informed, each state must have ready at least one-third of its quota by September 1 and to do so the local boards must carry their work forward rapidly.

CORN MARKET EASES ON BETTER WEATHER

Rains Pull Down the Price and Wheat Quotations Sag With Corn.

Chicago, Aug. 8.—Favorable weather and a prospect of further rains eased down the corn market today. Opening quotations which ranged from the same as yesterday's finish to 1/4¢ lower, with December at $1.16 1/2, and May at $1.13 1/2, were followed by a moderate decline all around and then something of a rally.

Wheat sagged with corn. After opening 1/4¢ up at $2.25, September, the market fell to $2.24 1/2, and afterward recovered to $2.25. The close was easy, 3/4¢ lower at $2.25 for September.

Continued big threshing returns weakened oats. Provisions took an upward swing because of announcement that England had advanced her maximum price on wheat.

Was Made Chairman of the Irish Convention

Sir Horace Plunkett, who was unanimously selected for chairman of the Irish convention now in session in Dublin. The convention has settled down to business and begun the drawing of a constitution of the future government of Ireland. Sir Horace is credited with the suggestion that the drafting of the constitution proceed as for all Ireland, thus permitting Ulster to see what she really faces before offering objections. SAFETY FIRST—TO ESCAPE ARREST AS A SPY.

A suburban resident is going to write to a firm of camera makers about a camera with a blind eye.

This staid father of a family is a nature-cure, and his college preparatory course for Willie and Susie requires in place of halls of learning only an automobile and a camera.

The instruction consists of frequent trips into the country, where father tells the children how to tell a birch from a maple, a beetle from a grasshopper, and takes pictures of leaves of trees and of bugs to serve as textbooks at home.

Last Sunday a picture which he intended to illustrate innocently a primer lesson in geology, showing how creaks wear away their channels, in view of one of the most important railroad bridges in this section, with a camp of patrolling soldiers.

When he put his foot on the self-starter to start back home a man with a badge put his hand on father's arm.

After a night in jail the amateur nature instructor learned just how and why it is not good to take pictures of railroad bridges, fortifications and their second cousins in war time.

"Well," he said, "either I'll have to give up Willie's and Susie's education, except for the second-hand stuff, or else somebody will have to invent a camera with one blind eye, that'll wink at war secrets."

AWAIT OREGON PINES FOR TRACK ELEVATION

Pennsylvania to Use Great Timbers for Bridge Structure.

Huge timbers, the bodies of giant Oregon pines, are being brought across country for use in carrying on the Pennsylvania track elevation at Lafayette and Hanna streets. When the big logs, parts of trees which felt the cooling breath of the Pacific ocean, are unloaded in Fort Wayne the railroad track elevation will be pushed to completion as rapidly as possible. Pennsylvania railroad officials have given the members of the board of works to understand that no delay will be a part of their program when the big beams which are being brought across country on flat cars arrive. The beams will be used to support the temporary bridge structures in connection with the track elevation process.

Final plans for the track elevation work have been made out by the railroad company. The original prints are slightly changed in the matter of the approaches to the railroad repair shops and coach shops. The railroad company expects to make a new grade along Hough street and may remove a part of their storage sheds in order to get a grade of less angle leading to the shops. Heaps of piling have been unloaded at Gay street and the railroad is showing every sign of making the dirt fly soon.

The Moellering Construction company, which has the contract for the city's part of the big job, is ready to start work as soon as the railroad will permit their activities.

STILL HANG FIRE.

Questions on Oil Tank Dangers Will Face Council.

The city council will have to wrestle with the unsettled question of the right of the Sinclair Oil company to place oil and gasoline tanks within the city limits when the council body meets Tuesday evening. Special session of the rules, regulations and ordinances committee of the council on Tuesday night failed to bring results.

There were warm speeches both for and against the plan of allowing the gasoline containers to be built along the Wabash railroad, near Gay street. Property owners living near the point and of which more than a dozen attended the committee meeting, are against the allowing of any tanks in their locality.

Mayor W. J. Hosey stoutly opposes the placing of the explosive containing tanks in the city. He denounced the oil company's program in a ringing address. Frank E. Singrey, a member of the board of works, also made a speech against the admitting of the tanks in Fort Wayne.

S. L. Morris, Jr., and W. P. Preen, two well known attorneys, represented the Sinclair company in asking the council members to leave the present ordinance, passed several weeks ago, to stand. Benjamin Geyer, of the Wayne Oil Tank company, explained to the councilmen that the oil company would place the metal containers beneath ground and that the tanks would be safe. It was shown that the state law will permit the tanks in the city.

Mayor Hosey in a closing speech explained that the city ordinance, if it is more restrictive than the state law, will be respected in the matter of public protection. He begged the council not to let down the bars. The meeting adjourned without the council committee deciding upon a recommendation for the city body. Another meeting may be called before next Tuesday evening.

PLANS FOR PARK.

Stirling Plat Will Have Wading Pool and Rest House.

Park Superintendent Adolph Jaenike has completed his drawing of plans for the new Stirling park, formed by the intersection of Wayne Trace, New Haven avenue and Warren street. His idea for improvement of the park of one-half acre has been approved by the park board.

There will be a large wading pool in the center of the three sided strip. Walks to the sides of the plat will radiate from the oval pool. There will be a play house for children and a rest house for women. There will be a small play ground on the north side of the plat.

Artistic landscaping will surround the monument at the west end of the park. The monument is the large, inscribed boulder which has been placed by the side of Wayne Trace to mark the way of Anthony Wayne's entrance to Fort Wayne.

Work of grading down the ground in the park site will start this week. Trees and shrubs will be planted this fall. Other building in the small park may be started before cold weather.

RAILROAD EARNINGS

MAKE A NEW RECORD

Figures Show Gain of Almost $8,000,000 Over June of 1916.

The 153 roads covered by the figures, operating three-fourths of the country's mileage, reported that their net revenue increased nearly $8,000,000 over June, 1916, the previous record month, and reached a total of $88,283,329.

Operating revenues increased more than $38,000,000, totalling $273,867,527, while expenses were approximately $30,000,000 higher than a year ago.

The greatest increase is shown by the western roads, whose operating revenues jumped from $24,000,000 to $110,000,000. Expenses increased approximately $10,000,000, leaving net revenues from operation of $39,616,950, or about $6,000,000 more than in June, 1916.

Eastern roads show an increase in net revenue of approximately $600,000.

Operating revenues increased $15,000,000, totalling $120,865,262, while expenses increased approximately $14,400,000.

Preliminary figures, covering the first six months of 1917, show an excess of $2,500,000 in net revenues over the record figures of a year ago. This increase was in the face of several bad months during the winter. The returns are interpreted as indicating that the railroads will exceed in 1917 by many millions the banner figures recorded last year. Total operating revenues of the 153 roads during the first six months were $1,489,248,702, an increase of $163,000,000 over the first six months of 1916. Expenses totalling $1,065,281,720 were approximately $160,500,000 greater than a year ago.

The upward turn came in May when the total earnings showed up slightly better than in May, 1916. Thirty-three railroads still are to be heard from and on the basis of the reports already in, the total operating income of all the roads for June should show a ten million dollar increase at least over June, 1916. The complete returns it is estimated will show the enormous total of $1,800,000,000 in operating incomes during the first six months of the current year. The increase in operating revenues for all roads during the period is expected to amount to approximately $190,000,000.

On the basis of these figures it is not unlikely that the roads will restore around $4,000,000,000 for operating in 1917, an increase of 20 per cent over the previous high total. Expenses, of course, have soared to new heights also, but the margin between revenues and expenses is expected to be greater than ever before.

STATE COUNCIL OF DEFENSE IS UNABLE TO AID

Reports to Governor There Is No Use
ana Coal Operators.

INDIANA AND ILLINOIS JOINED TO ACT

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 8.—Efforts of the special coal committee of the state council of defense to effect reductions in the price of coal have failed. The committee so reported to the council today and was discharged from further responsibility.

Chairman William G. Irwin, of the special committee, reported that an effort had been made to delay still further report but the committee "could not see the wisdom of further delay" and preferred to keep its promise of a report this week.

Governor Goodrich, of Indiana, and Governor Lowden, of Illinois, discussed the coal situation in the two states in regard to coal prices and supplies over the long distance telephone today. Governor Goodrich said that Governor Lowden asserted he expected to meet Illinois coal operators at Springfield today, but intimated he did not expect much in the way of tangible results at this time. It was agreed in the talk that the call to the governors of fourteen other states to meet in conference August 16, should be signed jointly by the Illinois and Indiana governors. It was also agreed that special sessions of the legislatures of the two states were called, they should convene on the same day as they probably will have similar problems to deal with.

While the state council of defense recommended to Governor Frank O. Lowden, seizure of the coal mines in Illinois, for the period of the war, as a means of reducing prices, the hope was expressed that the states of the central west will join in urging congress to enact a law that will confer full and sweeping powers of control over coal prices and distribution in an administrative body of the federal government which would have machinery to give instant relief. The committee of the state defense said seizure of the mines can be affected without the institution of judicial proceedings, the right of the state being in the security of sov-

FAKE ASSASSIN IS NOVEL PROFESSION POPULAR IN RUSSIA

Petrograd, June 20.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press.)—Among the novelties which Russia's revolution has presented to the world is the profession of fake assassin. In other countries only persons suffering from hallucinations claim to have committed murders of which they are innocent. Here as a result of Nicholas' overthrow, posing as an assassin is a highly profitable if transitory branch of business.

Terrorists released from Siberian convict jails and exile villages are naturally made heroes of. They are given train accommodations, free dinners, free clothes and gifts of money. When they reach their native towns they are acclaimed as martyrs of liberty, and they receive proposals of marriage from wealthy young women. As a result of this novel condition many enterprising citizens whose hands are innocent of anything grimmer than mud or ink are posing as murderers of despotic officials. Women as well as men are entering the profession.

In Minsk has been arrested Catherine Smirnov, who announced that she had murdered M. Ivanoff, governor of Odessa, and described with pathos her sufferings in the arctic wastes of Siakutsk. Smirnov levied tribute and was presented with bouquets. An unkindly inquirer discovered that Odessa had never a governor named Ivanoff, and further that Catherine Smirnov had posed in Odessa as a sister of Mercy and after swindling seventy charitable citizens had been expelled by the military authorities. In the same city a healthy young man who described himself as a soldier volunteer, arrested in the street the invalid ex-governor general, Piliu. Before a sympathetic crowd he denounced the general. "I am the innocent and unhappy man whom you seized," he exclaimed. "The peaceful citizen whom you sent to a convict prison without trial. Our company has ordered you to be sent to the front but in view of your bad health we shall show some mercy."

In vain Gen. Piliu explained that he had never seized any innocent man. He was hauled by the mob to the militia office. The Odessa Dreyfuss meantime collected money and fled. The militia at once released the general. From Siberia, which a Russian proverb described as the "Land of Credulity" similar cases are reported.

MINES MAY BE SHUT DOWN BY OPERATORS

Barons Declare They Will Close Rather Than Recognize Union.

Lexington, Ky., Aug. 8.—Reports reaching here from Pineville state that the strike movement among the miners of southeastern Kentucky and northeastern Tennessee is rapidly growing.

The dispatches from that section say that after fruitless efforts made during last night and today to induce the coal operators to enter negotiations, District No. 19, United Mine Workers of America, had voted to strike.

Reports say that if the order is adhered to in its entirety 25,000 men will be on strike throughout the district by Saturday night. The report stated that the strike vote was unanimous among the delegates.

It was also stated that a number of the larger mine operators had issued notices that they will shut down their plants rather than recognize the United Mine Workers of America. The notices stated that as a basis for their contentions they claim the miners in this field now receive the highest wages in the history of the field, wages in some instances having been increased 50 per cent.

The miners are demanding recognition of the union and a new wage scale adjustment.

Washington, Aug. 8.—Decision of the war department to abandon the army division of 28,000 men in favor of the continental unit of about 19,000 troops was due, it was said today, to changes in modern warfare that made the old command unwieldy and cumbersome in trench fighting. The division under the old system was not sufficiently mobile "for the peculiar needs of fighting on the western front."

Under the new plan, a division will include two infantry brigades of two regiments each, instead of three brigades of three regiments each as formerly. The artillery and machine gun strength is materially increased, the cavalry regiment, now a prominent part of the unit, is eliminated, a new trench mortar battery is added, and the old army corps plan abandoned after the civil war is again revived.

United Front.

Washington, Aug. 8.—The American mission to Russia, headed by Elihu Root, returned to Washington today to report to President Wilson on the results of his three months' trip to the world's newest democracy.

A delegation of government officials met the party at the railway station. Major General Scott, chief of staff of the army, who spent much time at the front, will report to Secretary Lansing. The general was with the Russian army part of the time it was in rout before the German forces and is expected to bring much valuable military information.

Arrangements were made at the White House for President Wilson to receive Mr. Root and all the members of the mission accompanying him at 4 o'clock this afternoon. Later Mr. Root will see Secretary Lansing. It is expected that Mr. Root will make a partial report at the brief conference today, but will make a fuller report later. Much, if not all of it, necessarily will be confidential.

Filled With Optimism.
The mission returned filled with optimism over conditions in the new republic and the chances of Russia doing her part to the end in the great war.

Assurances that the United States will remain in the war to the end and improved railroad facilities were declared by different members of the mission to be among the outstanding needs of Russia.

KINGDON COULD WOULD BE SURE WIFE CAN LIVE

New York, Aug. 8.—Kingdon Gould, of Lakewood, N. J., eldest son of George J. Gould, who claimed exemption when called before the draft board at Tom's River, N. J., Monday, on the ground that he had dependents, explained last night that he probably would not stand on the claim. His wife, a bride of only a month, was willing for him to serve, he said. Mr. Gould explained that his action before the exemption board was prompted by the fact that after he had passed the physical examination it was necessary for him to declare his intention of claiming exemption at once and as he had not consulted his wife, he adopted that course.

"The only doubt in my mind was whether my wife could skip through on my allowance."

Chancellor Michaelis and His Choice
of Colleagues Upsets Hope of Parliamentary Reforms.

SOCIALISTS WILL OPPOSE NEW REGIME

Copenhagen, Aug. 7.—The democratic movement in Germany which reformers were sure was getting such a splendid start in the recent reichstag crisis now seems to be slipping backwards, down grade.

The liberal and radical newspapers in Germany generally interpret the selection by Dr. Michaelis, the chancellor, of his colleagues as a distinct rejection of the principle of parliamentarism or parliamentary influence upon the administration.

The social organ Vorwaerts announces that the cabinet members, Spahn, Krause and Mueller enter the government as individuals, not as party representatives. Therefore, the party assumes no responsibility, but retains completely a free hand toward the government. Herr Mueller particularly, has long had no executive connection with the socialist party and has a purely administrative non-political post.

Must Be Last of Its Kind.
The Vorwaerts declares that the present government must be the last of its kind and must be supplanted by a government of the people. Dr. Michaelis is also getting further away from the reichstag peace resolution even as he interprets as the days pass. The phrase in his speech Saturday on

THE LAWYERS OF BRUSSELS HONOR A HEROIC MAYOR

Havre, Aug. 8.—Lawyers of Brussels have unanimously elected Adolphe Max, the heroic burgomaster of Brussels, imprisoned by Germans, as president of the bar association, according to news received here. The announcement of the election was received with rousing cheers regardless of the fact that German sentries were posted at the palace of justice, where the election took place.

Burgomaster Max was arrested at Brussels Sept. 25, 1914, for his "irreconcilable attitude," according to an announcement of the German military governor. After being imprisoned at various places in Germany he was finally interned at Glatz. Paris papers some time ago asked President Wilson, the pope and the king of Spain to intervene in his behalf. More recently the Belgians offered to exchange the German governor-general of East Africa for Max.

NINETY MEN ON SEVEN SHIPS GO DOWN IN STORM

London, Aug. 8.—Seven Norwegian sailing vessels and ninety men were lost in a heavy gale near Greenland, according to a dispatch to the Central News from Christiania. The vessels were part of a fleet of fifty and were returning from a fishing trip in the Arctic ocean. The gale was encountered on the outward journey.

The new government must realize the necessity of inviting the allies to help in reorganization of the railway service for warfare. If Germany decided, as all signs indicate, to transfer the main pressure to the Russian front it would be hopeless to rely on methods that availed against the inferior Austrian troops.

"Russia is full of splendid fighting men. Ten millions have already been enrolled but they are scarcely trained. They are too busy attending meetings instead of drill. These millions must be helped by British and French officers, as Serbians, Rumanians, Greeks and Americans have been."

RECEIVING BIDS FOR Y. M. C. A. BUILDING

Fourteen Contractors File
Estimates to Be Considered Thursday.

Thursday will probably mark the awarding of the greatest building contract of the year in Fort Wayne—the Y. M. C. A. building on the old Hope hospital site, southwest corner of Washington and Bar streets. Bids are being received today and at noon tomorrow at a meeting of the building committee they will be opened, examined and possibly the contracts awarded. Separate bids will be received on the building proper, including the foundations, on the wiring, plumbing, heating and ventilating systems. It is estimated that between twelve and fourteen bids will be filed, some from local contractors and others from out of the city. W. F. Shattuck, of Chicago, the architect, will be present to go over and discuss the various contracts with the building committee. None of the committee seen this morning would venture a prediction of the result of the bidding or whether any of the bids would be accepted. The personnel of the committee is as follows: A. H. Perfect, chairman; Arthur F. Hall, vice chairman; W. N. Ballou, secretary; B. Paul Mossman, E. E. Griest, F. S. Hunting, A. S. Coverdale, George P. Evans and S. B. Bechtel. Some of the committeemen are out of the city today, but all are expected to be at the meeting Thursday. The collection of the third payment on the Y. M. C. A. subscriptions are beginning to come in a little more rapidly than a few days ago, but not as rapidly as they should. It is learned that there should be from thirty-five to forty payments a day to bring the fund in on schedule time, but the average is only about twenty. The third subscription payments were due to begin July 1.

USED RIFLES IN DRILL.

Fort Wayne Rifle Drill Squad Has Guns for First Time.

The drill squad of the Fort Wayne Rifle and Revolver squad met at Swinney park last evening. E. A. Wagner, president of the club, was out and gave a brief talk, after which Captain Bradley instructed the members of the squad in the handling of the rifles, this being the first time rifles have been used in the drill. Increased interest was shown and rifles will again be in order when the squad meets on Thursday evening. Arrangements have been made so that the rifles belonging to the club will be available for men who do not have rifles of their own. All men subject to conscription are again invited to join in this drill, even though they may not be members of the Rifle club.

GIRLS TO HAVE FIELD DAY.

Industrial Federation to Assemble at Swinney Park Saturday.

The federation of industrial clubs of the Y. W. C. A., which includes the following organizations, Gymnasts, Perfectionists, Dudes, Busy Bees, Elex Girls and the Bosco club, will hold its second annual field day at Swinney park Saturday afternoon. The program will be interesting. One feature that will attract special attention will be the ball game between teams composed entirely of ladies and those who, without the "try outs" say that the playing will be exceptionally good.

LABOR SITUATION VERY BAD.

The labor situation at the various industries and shops of the city was never in a more discouraging condition than at present. Every shop in the city is short on laborers, with prospects of little improvement soon, unless the experiments with female labor now being made prove successful. A shop manager where many men are employed said this morning that during the past six or eight months over 2,000 laborers were hired at the shop and today the number is less than that was at the beginning of the year. Men take employment and work only a few days, when they resign and go to another shop. The employment agent at another big concern where several hundred additional men are needed today, said on an average of twenty-five men and women a day, but there were nearly that many resignations.

TAKEN SERIOUSLY ILL.

M. P. Reed, a fireman on a west-bound Pennsylvania freight train, was taken suddenly and seriously ill with gall stones while in the cab last night and had to give up the run at Plymouth and go to the hospital where he was attended by Dr. W. D. Aspinall. Mr. Reed was able to be up this morning and to converse by telephone with an attaché of the office of O. E. Maxwell, road foreman of engines in this city. He said he would probably be able to come home today. Mr. Reed resides on Greene street.

GONE TO UNCLE'S FUNERAL.

Machinist George Strasser, of the Pennsylvania shops, left last night with his father for Newcastle, Pa., where a brother of the aged man died yesterday. They will remain there until after the funeral. The trip is quite a task for one as old as Mr. Strasser, who is past eighty-two.

CYRIL POIRY RECOVERS.

Cyril P. Poiry resumed his work in the Pennsylvania air brake department this morning. Three months ago he was operated upon for relief from a trouble that had caused him a good deal of anxiety and pain and the operation was successful, though it was long in bringing the desired results.

INDUSTRIAL NOTES.

J. C. Nyeum, G. R. & I. fireman, is off duty on account of sickness.

Passenger Engineer A. E. Mills, of the G. R. & I., has joined his family at Rome City for a week's outing.

E. Stimma, a laborer at the Pennsylvania erecting shops, is on duty again, after being sick two or three days.

R. Kessel, machinist's helper in the Pennsylvania erecting shop, is sick and off duty.

W. P. Hallstein, supervisor of signals of the Pennsylvania, has returned from a business trip to Pittsburgh.

Machinist Joseph Markey, of the Pennsylvania shops, has gone to Bucyrus to visit a few days.

W. J. Ackerman, time clerk in the G. R. & I. offices, is at Lake James giving exhibitions in catching bass and bluegills. He is an expert in that line.

C. J. Rodabaugh, G. R. & I. fireman, reported for work this morning. He was off duty a week on account of the illness of his wife.

Time Clerk Miss Hilda Neeb, of the General Electric small motor winding department, is spending a week at a nearby resort.

Helen Crouse is spending this week at Lake James. She is employed in the small motor department of the General Electric works.

Miss Vivian Underwood, of the small motor department of the General Electric works, is on duty again, after a pleasant week's visit at Grand Rapids with friends.

C. E. Shaffer, stationary fireman, and F. E. Shively, crane operator, of the Pennsylvania power plant, have gone to Rome City to spend the balance of the week fishing and boating.

R. F. Kaiser, apprentice in the Pennsylvania lathe room, was taken ill in the shop this morning and had to knock off work and go home. His condition is not serious.

Among the new men at the General

Electric works today is Machinist F. A. Reed, who resigned a position at the Pennsylvania shops yesterday after a service there of about three months.

Over $21,000 was paid in monthly bonus to the employees of the General Electric works yesterday. The period covered by the bonus was June 18 to July 14. This was in addition to the regular wages.

Joseph C. Grosjean, head of the billing department of the General Electric works, is taking a vacation.

L. P. Sherrell, of the shipping department, is spending a portion of his vacation at Lima, his former home.

Engineer C. J. McDaniels, of the G. R. & I., is taking a western trip, which will take him to Denver, Salt Lake City and other points in that part of the country and consume about two weeks.

Gus F. Rogge, foreman of the detail department of the General Electric works, is out on a vacation this week. Foreman F. A. Smith, of the field coil winding department, is also out on a vacation. He is at Rome City.

The only local freight trains on the Nickel Plate carrying passengers at present are the two running in and out of Fort Wayne. One goes to Knox and the other to Leipsic. Formerly all of the local freight trains carried passengers.

A. J. Huber, who was at Lake James yesterday assisting in the search for his nephew, who was drowned several days ago, returned last night disheartened over the result of the search. Mr. Huber resumed work at the Pennsylvania planing mills this morning.

Machinist Oswald Kamm, of the Pennsylvania tool room, failed to report for work this morning and it is presumed he is sick. Chas. Laubscher is also absent from the tool room because of the condition of a relative who was operated upon at the hospital a week or more ago.

Henry W. Stute, piece work price clerk in the Pennsylvania machine shops, now handles the business of the position in a neat enclosure, instead of at a desk in the open, exposed to dust and noise of the shops. A small office building for his accommodation has been erected in the west central part of the big machine shop, a short distance from the site of his former office.

The Mutual Benefit association of the General Electric works, which was organized in 1897, now has 1,115 members and has disbursed in death and sick benefits a total of $2,754.40, about $800 in death claims and $2,054.40 in sick benefits. Only one of the original officers is now employed at the works.

William Brennan, the first chairman, is still here. John Dalton, the first secretary, is residing in Lafayette, and Harry Tomplar, the first treasurer, died some years ago.

PETEY DINK IS TO

BE AT SWINNEY PARK

Bowser Military Club Makes

Hunt for Him.

The week just passed has seen many sanguinary attacks by the enemy. Running true to form, however, our line has made counter attack after counter attack, using "gas" of a most effective nature, recently discovered by an eminent scientist, which has resulted in a success far exceeding our wildest expectations. At the present rate of advance we venture to make a most conservative prophecy—that General Petey Dink will lead his forces to a signal victory never before equaled in the history of man.

The last stand of the enemy will be at Swinney park, Thursday evening, August 9th. Don't fail to see this daring, but modest hero in action. He will be there during the whole evening, but owing to his extremely modest disposition he will not be in the uniform of his rank. It is up to you, if you want to speak with him, to address him as follows, without smiling:

"You are Petey Dink, the gink that put the submarine on the blink."

If, by chance, you happen to be addressing Petey, he will acknowledge it at once and make the necessary arrangements for the $5 offered by the club for his discovery to be paid to you.

SCOTTISH RITE TO

BE GIVEN SOLDIERS

Degrees Will Be Conferred

on Reserve Officers

Next Sunday.

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 8.—For the benefit of the soldier Masons now at Fort Benjamin Harrison, the Scottish Rite bodies of the Valley of Indianapolis will hold a special convocation at the temple in South Pennsylvania street Sunday, when the degrees of the rite will be conferred on those who wish to avail themselves of the opportunity. The plan was suggested when a number of members of the officers' reserve corps who are Master Masons, expressed a desire to obtain the degrees before leaving for military service at the close of the training camp.

The project was favored by John T. Sauter, three potent master of Adoniram Lodge of Perfection, who obtained a dispensation to confer the degrees at a special meeting. A sufficient number of petitions were received to warrant going ahead with the undertaking and announcement was made last evening that the arrangements had been made.

Brigadier-General Edwin F. Glenn, in command of the army post, who is a member of the Scottish Rite and a Knight Templar, promised his co-operation in the matter of allowing leave to any of the men desiring to take the degrees. Mr. Sauter announced that Master Masons from any of the states represented at the post came under the jurisdiction of the Indianapolis Scottish Rite at this time, and that petitions, if sent in at once, would be acted on in time for the conferring of the degrees Sunday. In view of the unusual conditions it has been arranged that petitions will be received or information given by Mr. Sauter or Francis T. Holliday, secretary of the temple.

Those who take the degrees Sunday will comprise what will be known as the Liberty class.

MURDERER USES A GIRL AS WARNING

Miss Frances King, and, below, Keneon Winslow, held as her slayer. young man, tennis champion and golf star, will revolve about this cryptic utterance. It is a note left in the hotel room where Miss Frances King, cabaret kitten, was found bound, gagged and dead from blows on the head. Did the nonchalant young sportsman write it? If so, just what did he mean? Of what tragic dispute, what tragic catastrophe, does it speak volumes in a sentence? Elizabeth society is trying to explain its "model" youth, a Sunday school teacher. Winslow, held in the Tombs here on a charge of murder, to which police claim he confessed, is the son of a prosperous dry goods merchant, and his family is one of the most prominent in Elizabeth.

Elizabeth still has a gleam of faith in his virtue. It is based on the note. Miss King was identified by the police as a cabaret frequenter, Fannie Kunzinsky, from Russia. She is said to have been married to Richard Lang, stock exchange clerk, three months ago, but was not living with Lang at the time of her death.

Winslow explained, the police say, when Miss King tried to steal his watch in the room he had hired, he hurled an inkwell at her and beat her over the head.

Summer Complaint.
During the hot weather of the summer months some member of almost every family is likely to be troubled with an unnatural looseness of the bowels, and it is of the greatest importance that this be treated promptly, which can only be done when the medicine is kept at hand. Mrs. F. E. Scott, Scottsville, N. Y., states, "I first used Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy as much as five years ago. At that time I had a severe attack of summer complaint and was suffering intense pain. One dose relieved me. Other members of my family have since used it with like results."—Advertisement.

NEWS FOR GUARDS.
H. C. Koehler Makes Suggestion for Distribution of Papers.
The Globe Printing company, of St. Louis, has been printing in its paper for a number of years a notice to traveling men which reads as follows:
"When you are through with this paper on the train throw it to the first gang of section men you pass, so they can read and enjoy it. They will appreciate it."
On the suggestion of H. C. Koehler, general superintendent of the Van Noy Interstate company, who writes: "I have always thought it was a waste of good paper to throw it off to the average section gang, composed of a foreign element who cannot read English" the notice was changed to read as follows:
"Owing to the war conditions existing in this country today, nearly every bridge, viaduct and tunnel throughout the country is guarded by our soldiers, who have little or no chance to buy a daily paper or reading matter of any kind. If you will throw this paper off with it, or a magazine you may have read, we feel sure that it would be much appreciated."

Ask Anyone Who Has Used It.
There are families who always aim to keep a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy in the house for use in case it is needed, and find that it is not only a good investment but saves them no end of suffering. As to its reliability, ask anyone who has used it.—Advertisement.

LEMONS BRING OUT THE HIDDEN BEAUTY

Make this lotion for very little cost and just see for yourself.

At the cost of a small jar of ordinary cold cream one can prepare a full quart pint of the most wonderful lemon skin softener and complexion beautifier, by squeezing the juice of two fresh lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of orchard white. Care should be taken to strain the juice through a fine cloth so no lemon pulp gets in, then this lotion will keep fresh for months. Every woman knows that lemon juice is used to bleach and remove such blemishes as freckles, sallowness and tan, and is the ideal skin softener, smootheners and beautifier.

Just try it! Get three ounces of orchard white at any pharmacy and two lemons from the grocer and make up a quart pint of this sweetly fragrant lemon lotion and massage it daily into the face, neck, arms and hands. It naturally should help to soften, freshen, bleach and bring out the roses and beauty of any skin.

Here are pupils of only United States coast artillery school playing the war game. An attacking fleet is menacing an exact replica of a section of the Atlantic coast line. The floor is one huge map, dotted with coast defenses and miniature ships of all classes.

A curtain is drawn between the class and the map while the instructor arranges the attacking forces. When the curtain is pulled back the men seated high on the platform issue orders to repel the invaders.

These pupils are picked from the country's training camps for officers, and most are graduates or post-graduates from leading technical schools

SWOON AFTER SWOON RESTRAINS MEXICAN

F. W. Ellison, who lives in the 2200 block on Winter street, has a small son and a daughter who is a young woman. The son is an active little fellow and the pride of the household.
A. J. Hernandez, 2210 Winter street, employed at the Bowser plant, is a dark-eyed Mexican. He claimed, in police court Wednesday morning, that it was the Ellison lad who blackened his small daughter's eye and pasted paper on the cheek of his son. When the neighbor boy alarmed the Hernandez children last Friday evening the father started over to the Ellison home to seek an understanding.
"Here comes the Mexican," screamed the grown-up daughter of the Ellison family, when Hernandez hurried across the street.
"I no kill your little brother," explained the swarthy citizen.
"He will kill little brother," shrieked the young woman.
Then Miss Ellison fainted. She recovered and fainted again. She fainted three times in a row, she admitted to Judge H. W. Kerr Wednesday morning.
Hernandez retreated after the young woman had collapsed. Neighbors ran from their homes and aided in reviving the victim of the series of swoons. One of the neighbors told in court that she had heard that the Mexican made the threat in regard to the active Ellison boy, "I will kill the little girl."

Judge Kerr continued the case indefinitely. It was announced that Hernandez will move to another part of the factory neighborhood because the Mexican has learned that his neighbors fear his southern temperament and because he dislikes the unnecessary activity with which his small children are being played by the neighbor boys.

MAY STILL GET INTO THE NAVY

Men Who Are Drafted Are Eligible Before Being Examined.

MANY ENLISTMENTS ARE STILL SOUGHT
Conscripts from Headquarters.

Contrary to the general opinion that the navy is filled up and that enlistments are not being sought, the service is still short 26,000 men, according to a statement made by A. G. Kaftan, officer in charge of the local naval recruiting station. The navy, he said, besides not discouraging application for enlistments is seeking them for various branches of the service.

A letter was received this morning by the local officer from the officer in charge, similar to those sent to all sub-stations which shows that men who have been called up for compulsory service under the draft law will be exempted if they can show that they have been accepted for the navy, providing the application for enlistment in the navy and the passing of the physical test has occurred before the army examination board.

The letter follows:
"It is unnecessary to continue special efforts to enlist musicians, but make special efforts to enlist cooks and bakers."

"In cases where local exemption board exempt men for the purpose of enlisting in the navy their enlistment in the navy may be authorized if in all other respects qualified."

"J. A. BELL."
Those headed most are cooks and bakers, apprentice seamen, firemen, musicians and radio men. Particular attention is called to the last class by the local officer, who states that radio operators may enlist for the period of the war and will be accepted between the ages of 18 and 40.

A big rush to get in the navy may develop when it is learned by those conscripted that good cause for exemption may be had if the person called up had applied and passed the physical examination, for enlistment in the navy. This course can be taken; it is understood, even after a person has been notified to appear before the examining board for army service.

STRIKE RIOTS IN PORTUGAL BLOODY

Arrested for Attempting Revolution.

An Atlantic Post, Aug. 8.—A description of a labor upheaval in Lisbon, Portugal on July 11, only briefly hinted at previously in cable dispatches which seemed to threaten a revolution and resulted in the suspension of constitutional guarantees, was brought here today by Gilbert L. Robinson, representative of a shipping firm, who arrived from Europe.

He said troops were called out and when a number of them were killed by bombs thrown among them they charged the crowds, killing eighty-five civilians and arresting 1,500. This broke the backbone of the uprising.

Mr. Robinson, who spent some time in Portugal, said the trouble was precipitated by the demand by all classes of workmen for a 75 per cent wage increase to meet the high cost of living with a threat of a general strike if denied.

The government refused to allow the enforcement of their demands, Mr. Robinson said, and when rioting began called out the military.

PROHIBITION GETS BLOW IN VIRGINIA

Dry Candidate for Governor
Loses Out in Primaries
to Wet Opponent.

Richmond, Va., Aug. 8.—Returns from the democratic gubernatorial primary continue to indicate the nomination of Westmoreland Davis, the London county farmer and lawyer, who ran independently and in opposition to J. Taylor Ellyson, the democratic organization candidate.

Davis is opposed to the prohibition constitutional amendment and his choice is regarded as a blow at the prohibition forces which made the state dry last November.

Prohibitionists attribute Davis' victory to a split in the dry vote between Ellyson and John G. Pollard, who also sought the nomination, which is equivalent to election.

INDUSTRIAL BOARD HAS MEETING TODAY

All Claims for Labor Exemption Are Carried to Special Board.

Meeting in the office of Dr. Miles F. Porter, sr., in the Physicians' Defense building, Wednesday afternoon, at 2:30 o'clock, the district board which has jurisdiction over claims for industrial exemption, considered for the first time the claims of conscripted men who have entered pleas for exemption on industrial grounds. All such claims from every district in the county must be filed with this board, which considers every case in its turn.

Dr. Porter is the representative from Allen county on this board. He also is president of the board.

Many men who work in shops and plants which are making government supplies have filed claims for exemption on this ground, and many of the men from the country districts claim exemption for agricultural reasons.

Washington, Aug. 8.—The largest crop of corn ever grown in the United States is in prospect for the coming harvest. The department of agriculture's August report, issued today, showed corn prospects improved to the extent of 67,000,000 bushels during July, indicating a total production of 3,191,000,000 bushels.

Wheat, however, shows a decrease of 95,000,000 bushels. Spring wheat had a bad month, and prospects decreased forty million bushels, but winter wheat returns indicated 15,000,000 bushels more than forecast in July. Wheat production, winter wheat and spring wheat combined now is forecast at 653,000,000 bushels.

Totals for other crops are forecasted as follows in the estimates:
Oats, 1,469,000,000 bushels; barley, 203,000,000 bushels; rye, 55,000,000 bushels; buckwheat, 19,500,000 bushels; white potatoes, 467,000,000 bushels; sweet potatoes, 84,000,000 bushels; apples, 133,000,000 bushels; peaches, 42,700,000 bushels.

TWO MEETINGS HELD TODAY

Explained at Two Local Plants.

President Howe, of Butler, and Attorney Stump, Chicago, Are the Speakers.

Two meetings were held in the interest of the boys' reserve movement at local factories Wednesday. One at the plant of the Wayne Oil Tank and Pump company and the other at the Dudge Manufacturing company plant. Albert Stump, an attorney of Chicago, spoke to the assembly at the oil tank plant and Professor T. C. Howe, president of Butler college, Indianapolis, addressed the meeting at Dudge's. The effort in behalf of the movement met with an enthusiastic response. The speakers explained some of the details of the plan by which youthful workers will be enrolled. All boys between the ages of sixteen and twenty-one must register, according to the edict of the department of labor, but stated enrollment does not necessarily follow.

Boys will be encouraged to do farm work and also to place men taken out of factories. It is not the idea of department of labor that boys will be taken away from home and this will not be done because it is recognized that they should have parental care. Bronze medals will be awarded by the government to boys who stay on the job three weeks or more. Those in charge of the movement want it understood that there is nothing in the work of military character and that the boys who enroll will be vastly benefited from the training.

A. L. McDonald, who is in charge of the boy scout activities in this city arranged the meetings here and has scheduled two meetings Thursday. Mr. Stump will speak at the plant of the S. F. Bowser & Co., and Professor Howe at the Bass company.

Clay Center, Kas., Aug. 8.—The condition of former President William H. Taft, who became suddenly ill here Monday night, was improved today, according to physicians who decided, however, that it would be advisable for him to remain in his room again today. He probably will leave for Lincoln Neb., tomorrow. Mr. Taft became ill after delivering an address here.

Newlin, according to the Paris edition of the New York Herald, was a member of section 29 and left Paris less than a month ago.

RETURNS FROM ZIONSVILLE.
Judge Samuel M. Hench, department commander of the Indiana G. A. R., returned Wednesday from Zionsville, where he spoke at the Old Soldier's day celebration at the Zion Park Assembly. Judge Hench also spent some time in Indianapolis, and while there attended a meeting of the state board of control of the soldiers and sailors' monument. This board has enacted a rule to prevent the parking of automobiles around the monument, which act was approved by the governor.

FORD IS DESERTED.
Presumably a driver of a Ford after his patience had reached an end, deserted his machine on the Decatur road, near the city limits. Sheriff George W. Gillie was notified and he is at a loss to know who the car belongs to. Everything of any consequence had been taken from the car. Officials also are of the opinion that the car has been stolen and that thieves took the valuables which they could move with them.

A rod to be attached to clotheslines has been invented which increases the carrying capacity of the lines to a considerable degree. It is so arranged that it joins two lines transversely.

Mrs. Louis Prang, of Boston, who is 80 years old and is still a co-ed. She received a degree from Radcliffe college last June and will enter an eastern school this fall to study for the Master of Arts degree.

Mrs. Prang is making a tour of the west during the summer. She declares that advanced years should not stop a man or woman from improving the mind. Her mother lived to be 94 years and told her daughter she reach the age of maturity at 80.

TO BE FILLED UP BY NIGHT

Regular Army Enlistments
Will Continue, However,
Says Major Ryan.

OPEN OFFICE IN
THE COURT HOUSE
Accept Enlistments Now for British Expeditionary
Forces.

Starting the day with but 3,000 vacancies in the United States regular army, it was the opinion of Major Thomas F. Ryan, of the Fort Wayne recruiting station that the regular army would be completely filled up by night.

Enlistments will, however, continue, states the major, and those who enlist after the army is filled will be placed in the reserves and will be assigned to regular duty as vacancies occur.

Sixty men are wanted at once for field artillery and the major announces that all men who wish to enlist in any branch of the national guard should apply at the regular army recruiting office. An office has been opened in the lobby of the Allen county court house.

Enlistments in the British and Canadian expeditionary forces will also be accepted at the regular army recruiting station and will be sent directly to Chicago or New York city, as the case may be. Those who enlist in this branch, however, must be British subjects.

Thirty-five men were sent from the Fort Wayne station to Fort Thomas, Ky., Tuesday evening and an equally large number is expected to leave Wednesday evening.

Major Ryan urges that all men who wish to get in ahead of the draft enlist at once, as the choice of service is gradually getting smaller each day.

Overtime Exhibition Contest Won by Locals at Lima, O.

Base Running by Chiefs is
Game.

Lima, O., Aug. 8.—The Chiefs stepped in and won a game from the Vets, a ten inning affair, which ended 5 to 4, and showing evidently that the ones that don't count, it being an exhibition contest, are the ones that the Chiefs can get. If yesterday's game had been one of the regularly scheduled league games instead of a little pastime for the delectation of Lima baseball fans, of whom approximately 1,200 turned out, Fort Wayne would not be fettered with the lowly Vets on the bottom rung of the pennant ladder.

However, it was a great game and it was for the benefit of the players which should have proven some benefit, too, for they certainly turned out en masse to see real league ball in this town.

In the extra inning Siegfried smashed out a clean three-bagger and came on when Kelly batted a long fly to center. The Vets in their half tried to even things up but were unable to do so. Schetter doubled and was followed by Neo, who singled to right. Knocking lid down a bunt in front of the plate and reached first, but Schetter was caught at the plate. Neo was out at third. Hobbs singled and was caught napping, which ended the game.

The Chiefs were much faster on the bases than their opponents and this fact probably cost the game for Dayton. Each side got twelve hits, Manager Vandagriff having a good day, getting three hits out of five times up.

THIS ONE DIDN'T COUNT.

BOAT REGATTA TO BE PATRIOTIC SPECTACLE

Navy Officers Will Take Part in Program at Minneapolis.

Minneapolis, Minn., Aug. 8.—The regatta of the American Power Boat association scheduled to be staged on the Mississippi river here August 23-27, will be made the occasion of one of the nation's greatest patriotic spectacles. The regatta, originally for the purpose of bringing together many of the fastest motorboats of the world, is resolving into an event of war-time demonstrations in which aerial and naval activities will predominate.

Rear Admiral Bradley A. Fiske, U. S. N., retired, and Alan R. Hawley and Henry Woodhouse, president and secretary respectively, of the Aero Club of America, will take an active part in handling the program.

The first public exhibition of Admiral Fiske's latest invention, by which an aerial torpedo may be launched from a seaplane will be the feature event. Arrangements for the exhibition were made in New York recently by Ensign Colby Dodge, chief naval recruiting officer for the northwest, when the local regatta committee agreed to turn the proceeds of the event over to the aerial coast patrol now being organized here.

Experienced operatives will be in charge of the planes and launching device. Reports from owners of the various motorboats which have been entered are to the effect that they are all making good time in the trial races, and Miss Minneapolis probably will be forced to equal her world's record of 66.6 miles per hour to retain the gold challenge cup.

With a view to eliminating all possibility of accidents to the racing craft, officials of the government high dam are making preparations to lower the river temporarily in order to remove obstructions from the race course.

JONES AFTER COLLEGIANS.

St. Louis Mo., Aug. 8.—Fielder Jones has a shade on his old friend, Connie Mack. Mack used to have the distinction of having more college players on his team than any other major league club manager. This year this distinction goes to the St. Louis Cardinals, with Jones as the pilot. There are seven collegians on the St. Louis club's roster. They are Eddie Plank, Gettysburg; George Sisler, Michigan; Derrill Pratt, University of Alabama; Doc Lavan, Michigan; Wright, Ohio State; Ernie Koob, Kalamazoo Normal, and Murray, Trinity.

Pratt and Koob also were great football players.

CONGRESS OF OLD LADIES, THURSDAY, AUGUST 16

The annual Congress of Old Ladies will be held at Robison park on Thursday, August 16. Should the day be stormy and rain be falling up to 1:30 p. m., the event will be postponed to Wednesday, August 22. A morning rain or temporary shower will not interfere with the holding of the congress on August 16. The parade of Old Ladies will take place at 2:30 and the line-up will be on the river side of the pavilion. Headed by the band the line will move to the theater where the exercises will be held.

(By Paul Purman.)
Mr. Fan, if you were a baseball magnate, how would you like to have these two fellows on your club?

One of them would hit, play the outfield and run bases like Cobb and Speaker and cover the infield positions like Herzog, Collins and Bush.

He would combine the fighting spirit of Herzog, the fire of the Georgia peach and the indomitable will of Tris Speaker with the popper and good nature of Donie Bush and the calm, cold blooded assurance of Eddie Collins.

Wouldn't he be a wonder? Hitting like that, wouldn't he be a wonder? Hitting like that, wouldn't he be a wonder? Hitting like that, wouldn't he be a wonder?

With Cobb's speed and craft he would beat out innumerable bunts and infield hits and with the combined speed and sagacity of the five he would steal bases almost at will.

In the outfield he would combine Speaker's uncanny ability to guess where a man is going to hit and his throwing accuracy with Cobb's trickiness.

In the infield he would cover ground with the speed of Bush, the cunning of Collins and the dash of Herzog.

And, Mr. Fan, you probably wouldn't turn down the other player, a combined pitcher, catcher and first baseman.

He would serve you Alexander's dazzling speed and bewildering curves from his right hand and then would turn around and feed you southpaw slants such as Sisler can shoot over when he is in the box. Or he would go behind the plate with the brains, speed and accuracy of Ray Schalk, where he would get more out of his pitchers than any other catcher, nip base runners and gobble up every foul and bunt in his territory.

Or he would go down on first base and cover as much ground as any other man in the game today.

What would a magnate pay for either of these players?

Well, let's see. Speaker was sold for $50,000. Either of these men would be worth several Speakers.

Of course it's all a dream and never could be real—but it's mighty pleasant to think about.

A slight shakeup came to the camp of the Chiefs last evening when it was announced by Secretary John Essig on his return to this city that Pitcher Mark Higbee and Shortstop Williams had been released. Along with this announcement came the news that another pitcher, Warmoth, a southpaw, had been signed.

Warmoth comes with a big reputation, having been given a tryout with the St. Louis Nationals two years ago. He was later farmed by the Cardinals to the Hannibal club of the Three-I league. He refused to report to that club and went to Mt. Carmel, Ill., where he engaged in semi-pro ball for the remainder of the season. He is now a free agent, and should strengthen the locals a great deal.

Siegfried has been moved to short, and Roberts, who is supposed to be a pitcher, but who can hit as well as any of them, will perform in left field for the remainder of the season. It is not known what will become of Higbee. The red-haired heaver performed well at times, but was always the victim of hard luck in the way of poor support and lack of hitting behind him.

WAR TALKER DETAINED.

Seymour, Ind., Aug. 8.—Howard Chandler, of Jackson county, is being detained by the local police, pending an investigation of alleged unpatriotic utterances. An agent from the United States marshal's office at Indianapolis came here to obtain affidavits following notice of Chandler's arrest. Ladies! Keep It on The Dresser

Few drops on corn or callus stops pain, then they lift off.

Your high heels have put corns on your toes and calluses on your feet, but why care now?

This tiny bottle holds an almost magic fluid. A genius in Cincinnati discovered this ether compound and named it Freezone. Small bottles of freezone can be had at any drug store for a few cents. Never limp or twist your face in pain again, but get a bottle of freezone and apply a few drops on your tender, aching corn or callus. Instantly the soreness disappears and shortly you will find the corn or callus so shriveled and loose that you lift it off with fingers.

Just think! You get rid of a hard corn, soft corn or a corn between the toes, as well as hardened calluses, without suffering one particle, without the slightest irritation of the surrounding skin. Just a touch of freezone on a sore corn gives instant relief.

TO BE TAUGHT IN THE CITY SCHOOLS

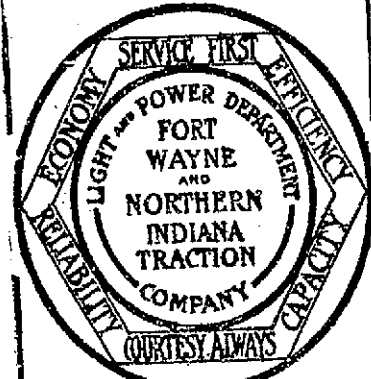

Prof. Wm. Miles, head of the music department of the Fort Wayne City schools, heard William Paine sing "Hooray for Uncle Sam" at Robison Park. SUNBURN TATTOO ON MERMAID'S ARM LATEST WAR MEMORY STUNT

VIVIAN HAYNES AND HER SUNBURN TATTOO. She proved her devotion to her "Soldier Boy" by permitting Old Sol to engrave the soldier's initials and regiment number on her arm.

This is the way the new idea works out. Take a piece of court plaster, cut the initials and design you wish to register on your arm. Paste it on the arm and the sun does the rest.

You must wear your sleeveless bathing suit, of course. The sun tans your arm a fine, brown color. The court plaster is then taken off, leaving the initials and design neatly engraved in white flesh.

Mermaids along the Pacific coast are going in strong for the new fad.

FIVE YOUNG MEN HAD FAILED TO REGISTER

All of Them Turned Over to Sheriff Gillie for Federal Investigation.

Five cases of young men who have not registered showed up in police court Wednesday morning. They were all bound over to Sheriff Gillie with instructions to institute a federal investigation.

Joe Brown, 23, employed on the railroad at Auburn, said he had been told that he was too old to register. He does not read.

Ray Wallace, colored, taken from a Wabash freight train, says he is nineteen years old. He was born in 1897, he says. The judge believes him to be twenty-one.

Wilbur Cox, colored, partner of Wallace, also claims to be nineteen. "When were you born?" queried the prosecutor.

"I am not going to say when I was born," said Cox, taking advantage of the mistake made by Wallace.

"How do you know you are nineteen?" asked the prosecutor.

"Cause they told me I was seventeen two years ago," answered the colored fellow.

Al Ewing and Howard North, both colored, claiming to be twenty years old, are also believed to be of considerable age.

Trampled Garden.

Elmer Fremoin, 26, did not secure the horse belonging to Louis Koehler, a brother of John "Sammy" Koehler, and for whom Fremoin has worked. The horse got loose, Friday night, and trampled the garden of Burton Bailey, 3023 Lafayette street.

Neighbors corroborated the statement that fifty-one hills of corn were destroyed. Damage was set at $10.

Fremoin was fined $20 and costs on a malicious trespass charge.

"We won't stand the fine," said Koehler, but later he assisted in paying the court $30.

Other Police Court Cases.

Lee Heller parked his auto near a water plug. He was fined $5 and costs.

Jefferson Meyers was fined $10 and sentenced to thirty days in jail on an intoxication charge. Oliver Maland was fined $5 on a like complaint. John Welsh will be tried on Thursday.

ACQUIRE ANOTHER AGENCY

"Automobile Row" is all a-flutter today and somewhat surprised at a new turn of events that has just come about. The cause for all this being the fact that the Schiefer Auto company has taken on the local agency of the famous and popular "Chevrolet" line of cars for the 1918 season. The "Chevrolet" line will materially strengthen the agency of the Schiefer Auto company and fits in well with the other car this hustling firm are distributors for, the Paige.

The new 1918 models of the Chevrolet are now here on the floor of the Schiefer Auto company, and are receiving very favorable comments from all who have so far seen them.

The Daily Sentinel commissioned "Bob" Satterfield, the well known cartoonist, who has been doing some on-the-spot sketches of the country and incidents in southeast Oklahoma's "draft rebellion." Here's the first step of Satterfield's work. He shows a typical sheriff of the old Indian country; a few of the negro rioters who are seeking to evade army service, with armed possemen guarding them; a night silhouette of flivvers commandeered by the sheriff for the chase; and a drawing indicating the kind of rough hill country in which the slackers are entrenched. There'll be more sketches tomorrow if Satterfield doesn't meet the fate of the innocent by-stander.

ALL OLD MEN INVITED ON WOMAN'S DAY

When the Congress of Old Ladies is held at Robison park on Thursday, August 16, a new feature will be added. Heretofore, only the elderly women have been invited to attend the congress. This year we are extending an invitation to their husbands to come with them. No more inspiring, uplifting sight can be seen than an aged couple, both of whom have reached three score years and ten. Companions throughout the years that are gone, they are still the playmates of youth. Life with all its struggles has not shaken their love and devotion. As life's years have passed, leaving only memories, these two have gone on, hand in hand, happy in one another's presence. The children have come, lingered a while, and gone to build homes for themselves. Still the fires of devotion, pledged in those younger days, burn on. So bright are their beams that today's pathway is lighted by its own light. As we honor the wife and mother, we want the husband and father—the companion of all the yesterdays—to be our guests also. We invite you to spend Woman's Day with us, and not only you but all old men, whose wives have been our guests in former years. Some of these may now be too feeble to come, while others may have passed to the great beyond. We would be glad to have you, who have walked with them through so many years, as our guests. We will present to each one of you a cane as an expression of our pleasure at your presence at the congress this year. We invite you to march at her side in the parade and carry a flag.

VOLUNTEERS WANTED FOR FIELD SERVICE

Transport and ambulance drivers are wanted for immediate service in France for the American field service. A training camp for men entering the transport work has been organized near Solons by the French army for this branch of the field service, at which the volunteers are given military schooling, including setting up exercises, elementary infantry drill, lectures upon the organization of the French army in general, and the transport service in particular, together with practical training in the handling and repairing of cars. A school for officers of the American field service has also been organized at Meaux by the French army. The minimum age limit is 18, the maximum 40, but men who are older or younger may be accepted if the board is convinced they are able to do the work. Minors must have the written consent of their parents or guardians. All conscriptible men will henceforth without exception be assigned to transport service. Inquiries and correspondence should be addressed to Captain E. H. Kilbourne at the Commercial club.

LITTLE SON OF THE DESAULLES HAS BEEN FOUND

Mineola, N. Y., Aug. 8.—All mystery about John Longer Desaulles, the 4½-year-old son of Mrs. Desaulles, who shot and instantly killed her divorced husband when he refused to give up the child last Friday to her care, was cleared today when he was found in the care of G. Maurice Heckscher, Desaulles' business partner. Counsel for Mrs. Desaulles was expected to make an appeal to Mr. Heckscher today that the mother, who is confined in the county jail here on a charge of first degree murder, might be allowed to see her son. Should this appeal fail, it was said, legal action would probably be taken.

The funeral services for Desaulles were held today.

ONCE JACK DE SAULLES, FRECKLED LAD OF FIVE, HAD TOO MANY PARADISES; NOW HE HAS NONE—SAND PILE AND SWING PARADISES ARE DESERTED

The Airedale Terrier at His Father's House is Lonely and the Little Boy of Tragedy is at His Third Home Within a Week.

By FREDERICK M. KERBY.
(Staff Special.)

New York, Aug. 8.—A bright, serious faced boy, not yet quite five, light hair but eyes dark—that's little Jackie De Saulles, central figure in the most dramatic tragedy of mother love the country's court annals record.

A few days ago too many hands grasped for Jackie. That was his trouble then. Today all those parental hands do not grasp, but are bound—by death or the law.

The child's eyes are troubled. Their trouble was that both father and mother reached eagerly for him. Their trouble is that now neither reaches. Two—both famed, both rich, both cultured—fought for the chance to shower all the tokens of devotion a parent thus dowered can give. Today one is dead and the other in prison.

Once Jackie De Saulles' chief shadow was that he had a father and a mother. Now the shadow is that he has neither—and may never have.

The accurate bullets with which Bianca Erruzariz De Saulles, Chilean beauty and heiress, killed John L. De Saulles, Yale gridiron hero, sportsman, political leader, successful business man and society favorite, whom she had divorced nine months ago, solved no problem for their son Jackie.

The boy, who witnessed the tragedy at his father's home, "The Docks" in the Long Island millionaire colony, has been spirited away by the father's relatives, who fear he may be taken from them, even though the young mother is in Mineola jail.

In the few years of his life Jackie De Saulles has never had a wish denied—and yet he has never been quite happy.

Since the decree of divorce granted Mrs. De Saulles last December, Jackie has had two homes, two playgrounds, two sets of governesses, two beautiful, wide-spreading lawns, two outdoor miniature child's paradises.

He has had a pony, dogs, birds and other pets. He has had a private shooting gallery for his boy's bows and arrows. He has had a specially built chute-the-chutes; a wonderful seashore sandpile; a big swing and a splendid see-saw.

He had to leave his mother's house in the big automobile every time he wanted to visit his father. And when he was comfortably enjoying the see-saw, the swing and the chute-the-chutes on his father's lawn, he had to go back to that other playground if he wanted to see his mother. And now Jackie has been taken from both playgrounds by Mrs. August Hecksher, of Huntington, a cousin of De Saulles.

Mrs. De Saulles never was able to understand why the court had granted chute-the-chutes, the swing and the shooting gallery are empty.

The Airedale terrier at his father's house is lonely. And the big white bull pup, which his mother brought with her in the taxicab on the night of the shooting, is in the care of the black butler at "The Crossways."

A freckled, tanned little boy, with hair cut straight around the back just below the ears, has gone to a new home—the third in a week.

Three who will never be together again—Big and Little Jack De Saulles and Bianca De Saulles. The boy came between them, first as a bond, then as a barrier, leading to De Saulles' death at the hands of the wife who had divorced him.

her husband, proved guilty of misconduct with another woman, the custody of the child part of each year. She feared the father's wealth and social and political influence might eventually take the boy away from her.

Little Jack's future will probably be settled by the supreme court. Whether the mother is convicted or freed, the court may decide she is not a proper person to have the child. By risking all to obtain him, she is likely to lose him completely.

Meanwhile the see-saw and the

CARRIER PIGEONS WANTED.

Boston, Aug. 8.—An appeal to owners of carrier pigeons to send their names to the headquarters of the aviation section of the signal officers' reserve corps was made today by Lieutenant Charles J. Gilden, in charge of recruiting. It was explained that carrier pigeons were being used by aviators in the present war for sending back messages containing information obtained behind the enemy lines and that this method might be adopted to some extent by American aviators.

DETACHMENT ORDERED OUT

Seven Members of Company
B, Signal Corps, Leave for Indianapolis.

BOYS GET WORK OUT EACH DAY

Company E Expects to Get Summons Order by First of Next Week.

Orders for the headquarters and supply detachment of Company B, Signal Corps, to report to the adjutant of the battalion at Indianapolis at once were received Wednesday morning.
Seven Fort Wayne boys left for Indianapolis at 9 o'clock.

Those men who are in this detachment and who departed Wednesday morning are: Albertson, Romberg, Dale D. Davis, Virgil Roy, Harold Lewis, Harold Fackler, Robert Overholser and Ralph Gordon.

It is believed that these men will be kept at the office of the battalion adjutant to do clerical work. Work of this nature is immense just previous to the calling out of the unit.

Officers of the company state that it is their opinion that the company will receive orders to report at Fort Benjamin Harrison the first of next week.
The calling of the headquarters detachment also carries out this belief still further.

Many of the members of the signal corps and the new members of Company E, the other national guard unit which mobilized last Sunday, are suffering from sore feet as drilling is going on each day with night and main.

For the purpose of securing money for the company fund, Company E will give an ice cream social in the market square Saturday night. One thousand tickets have been distributed, but it is hoped that five or six thousand people will attend.

Company E is also expected to leave the city the middle of next week.

The necessity of "a powerful peace"

was printed in black face type.
Reports to the Associated Press from Germany say that Dr. Michaelis now has been hailed by the advocates of greater Germany as a new Blomberg and an enthusiastic orator of a delegation from an independent committee for German peace which saw Michaelis at the Dresden railway station made wildly applauded speech, greeting him as a worthy successor of the old blood and iron chancellor.

Dr. Michaelis, according to the published reply to the speech was modestly silent regarding it.

Opposed by Socialists.
German socialists will oppose the newly constituted government at Berlin on principle, the socialist newspaper Vorwarts declares in its comment on the ministerial appointments.

"Persons so foolish as to expect a great gain in the direction of a parliamentary regime," says the Catholic newspaper Germania, "will naturally be disappointed," but it expresses the opinion that the presence of Catholic representatives in the government greatly improves the system.

It appears that Dr. Spann, leader of the Catholic center party in the reichstag, will be forced to retire from parliamentary life on account of his appointment as Prussian minister of justice. He must resign his seat owing to the constitutional provision upon accepting the portfolio, but it is asserted there is nothing to prevent his standing for re-election. He will accordingly do this, though he cannot become a member of the bundesrath.

August Worms, leader of the Flemish movement in Belgium, said in an interview in the Berlin Tageblatt, the aim of the movement was the re-establishment of Belgium as a dual monarchy of Flanders and Walloonia, under King Albert. Herr Worms took Austria-Hungary as an example of the movement for free Flanders in free Belgium.

near Lombardeyde and captured a few prisoners and a machine gun.

"The enemy's artillery was active during the night to the east and north of Ypres, particularly in the neighborhood of Westhoek and the Ypres-Breden railway."

RUSSIANS STILL RETREAT.

London, Aug. 8.—The newspaper Novoye Vremya of Petrograd reports that the Russians have evacuated Proskurov, in Podolia, on the Bug, as well as Kamenets-Podolsk, fifty-five miles south.

Kamenets-Podolsk is the capital of Podolia, on the Smolitsch, an affluent of the Dniester. Under the Poles it was an important fortress. Its population is 34, 500.

Proskurov is on the main road from Kamenets-Podolsk in the same province.
It is an important garrison town and has a population of 2,900.

TURKS BOMBARD CHIOS.

Athens, Aug. 8.—Official advices from Chios say the Turks have bombarded the island from Tchesme, a seaport of Asia Minor, forty miles from Smyrna, sinking four sailing vessels and slightly damaging the town and the aviation grounds.

GERMAN SEAPLANE INTERFERED.

Flushing, Holland, Aug. 8.—A German seaplane stopped a Dutch fishing boat near Westkapelle. One of the fishermen went aboard and ordered the boat to Zeebrugge. While still in territorial water Dutch patrol boat met and brought the boat to Flushing. The German fishermen were interned.

CROWN PRINCE REPULSED.

Paris, Aug. 8.—Troops of the German crown prince last night launched attacks on the French positions east of Vauxaillon and west of the Cal-zornie plateau, in the Alsine region.
The official statement issued today by the French war office says that all the attacks were repulsed.

German raids north of St. Mihiel in the Verdun sector, and in upper Alsace were checked by the French fire.
On the greater part of the Alsine front the statement adds there was a heavy mutual artillery fire.

LABOR CONFERENCE PUT OFF.

London, Aug. 8.—The entente ally labor conference which was scheduled to open in London today to consider the question of sending representatives to the Stockholm conference has been postponed until the end of August at the request of the French socialists.

CHARLES TO WILLIAM.

Vienna, Aug. 8.—Emperor Charles, of Austria-Hungary, sent from Czernowitz,
the capital of Bukovina, recently captured by the Austro-German forces, a message to the German emperor congratulating him on the success of the "brave troops which with the aid of the "Almighty" effected the deliverance of the Austrian crown land of Bukovina.
The Austrian emperor said: "May the Lord continue to aid in faithful co-operation in the future with the fullness of His blessings."

Emperor William replied that the joy of the people of Bukovina would be echoed in Germany and he added his prayers that God would help the Teutonic allied troops in the future.

Gen. von Kossow, who commanded the Austrian forces in Bukovina, has been appointed a field marshal by Emperor Charles.

ON ITALIAN FRONT.

Rome, Aug. 8.—There were lively encounters on the Trentino front yesterday between Austro-Hungarian and Italian patrols, says the report issued by the Italian war department. Italian air squadrons on Monday and Tuesday dropped four tons of high explosives on the Austrian military huts in the Chiapovano valley, causing great destruction.

ON RUMANIAN FRONT.

Berlin, Aug. 8.—North of Pokshan, on the Rumanian front, the forces of the central powers and their allies extended their success, says the official statement issued today by the German war office.

QUIET IN EGYPT.

London, Aug. 7.—(Delayed.)— Nothing of special importance has occurred in Egypt, says an official statement issued this evening.

Amsterdam, Aug. 8.—The four principal hotels in the Hartz mountains in northwest Germany have been closed by the authorities in connection with clandestine dealings in meat, according to dispatches received here.
The closing of several more hotels and food stores is expected.

Berlin, Aug. 8.—Western front: Repeated strong entente attacks between Draibank and Frezenberg, northeast of Ypres, were repulsed by the Germans.

GERMAN OFFICIAL REPORT.

Berlin, Aug. 8.—British forces after artillery bombardment of drum fire intensely last night pressed forward from Neuport, on the coastal sector of the Belgian front, but were driven back after hand to hand fighting. It was officially announced today by the German army headquarters staff.

The artillery activity in Flanders, the statement adds, increased during the night to greater intensity.

FINISH WORK

district No. 3 announces that 350 more men to be examined. The board of the first district, however, states that judgment will first be passed on the claims for exemption before more men are called in.
The first district board which met at the Harman school accepted seventy-six men who waived exemption. Thirty-two failed to report and unless they have enlisted will be counted as selected for service in the first conscription army. The board also believes that at least 10 per cent of the exemption claims will be turned down.

Young men in the country district get peevish, say members of the country board, when they are told that industrial exemption claims cannot be filed with the board. Dr. Miles F. Porter, Sr., is the man to consult on this matter.

Lawyer Seeks to Help.

Many of the young men from the country who pass the physical examination and are eligible for service are going so far as to seek advice from lawyers.

A prominent lawyer of this city who has been endeavoring to put on a patriotic front heretofore, was seen talking to a group of country boys. In parting he said: "Well, boys, I hope I can do something for you and get you out."

To Call Twenty-five Each Day.

The board of district 2 has not finished the work of examining the first candidates but are sending out twenty-five notices each day until the quota of men have been secured.

The country board expects to finish its work Thursday afternoon but a large number of men who were rejected on the first examination will be re-examined Friday.

Less than half of the city's quota had been secured up to noon Wednesday.
Four hundred and sixty-eight were declared eligible out of 691 who had been given the physical examination. Only 147 up to the noon hour had not claimed exemption.

Government agents will start a search for men who have been called for examination for service in the national army.

but who have failed to appear before the selection boards. Nearly all of the districts have reported such cases.

It is believed that in most of these cases the men simply have neglected to do their duty and that they do not realize the position they place themselves in by such a course. The fact is, as has been explained, that any man called who fails to appear before the board for examination thereby automatically becomes a soldier. He has lost his chance for exemption, even if he had expected to make such a claim.

There has been no indication, as far as can be learned, of any concerted attempt on the part of tardy ones to evade the draft, but the United States officials will also look after that phase of the matter.

District Three Calls More.

District No. 3, Fort Wayne, the largest of the local districts to examine men called to the colors from Allen county and the first to start the physical examinations, has completed the process for the number from which the first quota was to have been drawn.
Although no figures are available now on the number of men examined who will neither be exempted nor have been found physically unfit. It is evident that the opinion of the local board is that the estimate first made has been found far short to supply the allotment required.

The board of the Third district is not awaiting official word to send out the additional notices, but is preparing the summons for 350 more young men to appear for physical examination and to give reason why they should not become a part of the new national army.
The action on the part of the local board indicates that it believes that only a small per cent of those already called before it will be acceptable for service when the rejections for physical disability and exemptions are figured out.
To show that the estimates on the necessary number to fill the general quotas are much below what will actually prove necessary, it is pointed out that only 308 notices were originally sent out and the board is preparing to send out Wednesday or Thursday notices for 350 more men to appear Monday morning before the examining board of District No. 3 at the Harman school house. The men drawn, of course, as has been done before, will be examined in the order of their liability numbers.

The action of the board cannot be taken to mean that wholesale exemption claims are going to be allowed, however, as the board itself is as yet in the dark on this subject and such claims have not yet been taken up, and the sending out of the greatly increased number of notices can be partly accounted for by the fact that a great many rejections have been made.

Today was the last day for filing claims for exemption for the men who have already been called up and providing

HAVE HOPE OF RUSSIA

member of the mission who recently withdrew from the socialist party in this country, declared vigorously that the chief duty of the United States is to convince the Russian people that the United States is in the war to the finish.

"I cannot emphasize too strongly," Mr. Russell said, "that this country should present a united front. The Russian people are not united at the present time, but they are in such a frame of mind that they easily can be united if the American people only will convince them that this nation stands solidly behind its allies in this war and will not falter.

"The newspapers of the United States have a great duty to perform in presenting the situation in this country as it really is. Talk of peace at this time and arguments against sending our boys to France is utter rot.

"We must go through this war to the end and our citizens must at least make up their minds to that effect.
Slacker, peace and home guard talk has no place in this situation at present.

"I am greatly encouraged by conditions in Russia. They are becoming better all the time. Even during the four weeks that I was in Petrograd I noticed a great change. I spent virtually all of the time with the workmen's council, which is really the government of Russia, and I know that the people are gradually getting behind the government more strongly each day. Of course they are sentimental and peculiar people, but they are anxious to make a fight for the right and if we will do our share that certainly will do theirs. The whole question of the future of Russia now lies with the United States."

Russians Need Railroads.

James Duncan, who represented labor on the commission, expressed the opinion that development of railroad facilities is the greatest problem now facing the Russian people. Conditions in all other lines will work out well, he said, if the transportation is solved. "The outlook for the new republic is bright," he said. "The people are pleased that the United States has gotten into the war and its entrance has had a wonderful effect on the morale."

"All they need is better transportation facilities to move troops, munitions, etc. They have plenty of munitions on hand and if they can solve the railroad problem they will fight like "

Ambassador Bakmeff, of Russia, Sourisoff Polk, of the state department, Samuel Gompers president of the American Federation of Labor, and other officials were among those who met the commission at the train.

ereignty itself and the doctrine of eminent domain and the police power. It further states that if the mines are taken over on a scale of prices can be established by the state government and changed from time to time to meet varying conditions.

Coal mine owners do not dispute the right of the state to seize the mines, said Herbert H. Taylor, of the Taylor Coal company, and member of the operators committee with the council.

"We claim, however, that the council has not ascertained conditions within the coal industry and its recommendations are not made on thorough investigations.

"I don't want to make excessive profits in this time of national extension. My books are open and they show the cost of operation of every one of my mines and what I get for every ton of coal. I should like to see the federal government step in and take charge of things. Other operators are ready to open their books to a government body like the federal trade commission and have so indicated many times."

The states invited to send representatives to a conference here August 16, are Pennsylvania, West Virginia, Ohio, Kentucky, Indiana, Michigan, Tennessee, Missouri, Iowa, Minnesota, Wisconsin, North Dakota, South Dakota, Nebraska and Kansas.

GOVERNORS RESPOND.

Chicago, Aug. 8.—Practically all of the governors of states from Pennsylvania to Kansas, had responded favorably today to an invitation extended yesterday by the Illinois council of defense, to attend a conference in Chicago on August 16, for the purpose of bringing about a uniform regulation of the price of coal.

DAY'S WAR NEWS

Belgian coast which the Germans beat off in hand to hand fighting. The official statement is recorded in the British official statement as a successful raid near Lokersteede in which the British captured a few prisoners and a machine gun. Judging from the German statement there were further raids in force by entente troops on other portions of the German lines on the Flanders front.

On the French front in the Alsine region new attacks were made by the crown prince east of Vauxaillon and west of the Calzornie plateau. They were repulsed.
There is considerable artillery activity all along the Alsine front.

The Germans who broke into the Russo-Rumanian lines near Fokshan extended their success yesterday, today's Berlin statement reports.

from Roosevelt, while still others went by automobile to Rice, where they expected to obtain horses for the ride to the mines.

First news of the trouble, which began yesterday morning when the Indian and Mexican help employed in the asbestos mines went on strike for higher pay, was received last night in a telephone message from a stranger who had ridden twenty-five miles to give the alarm. The ranger reported that the Indians had set fire to the forests and had been prevented from burning the mine buildings only by prompt action of the guards.

Another telephone message was received saying that the nine white men in the camp had been driven into a dugout on the mountain side and were surrounded by the Indians and Mexicans. The men in the dugout were said to be supplied with only a few rounds of ammunition and a small quantity of provisions, and it was feared they would not be able to withstand the combined assault of the strikers and the forest fire.

Because of the lack of communication all messages having to be carried on horseback twenty-five miles to a telephone, details of the uprising are not yet known here, but reports indicated that the organizers of the I. W. W., one a Mexican who speaks the Apache tongue, had been working among the men for the last week and had instigated the strike.

ONE-THIRD OF THE STATE'S QUOTA SOON

Thirty-Three Per Cent of Draft Men Go to Camp
About Sept. 1.

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 8.—One-third of the quota of each state for the new national army probably will be ordered to entrain for camp between September 1 and 5, according to a telegram received today by Jesse Eschbach, state conscription agent, from General Crowder, provost marshal at Washington. The message said the war department expected to call to not exceed one-third of the quota between those dates to proceed to the training camps. The local conscription boards in the meantime, the message said, should certify daily to the district appeal boards. Lists of names of men called who have not been exempted or discharged, either because they did not file claims for exemption or their claims were disallowed. To meet the requirement of the war department, Mr. Eschbach was informed, each state must have ready at least one-third of its quota by September 1 and to do so the local boards must carry their work forward rapidly.

Was Made Chairman of the Irish Convention

Sir Horace Plunkett, who was unanimously selected for chairman of the Irish convention now in session in Dublin. The convention has settled down to business and begun the drafting of a constitution of the future government of Ireland. Sir Horace is credited with the suggestion that the drafting of the constitution proceed as for all Ireland, thus permitting Ulster to see what she really faces before offering objections.—Copyright, Underwood & Underwood.

AWAIT OREGON PINES FOR TRACK ELEVATION

Pennsylvania to Use Great Timbers for Bridge Structure.

Huge timbers, the bodies of giant Oregon pines, are being brought across country for use in carrying on the Pennsylvania track elevation at Lafayette and Hanna streets. When the big logs, parts of trees which felt the cooling breath of the Pacific ocean, are unloaded in Fort Wayne the railroad track elevation will be pushed to completion as rapidly as possible.

Pennsylvania railroad officials have given the members of the board of works to understand that no delay will be a part of their program when the big beams which are being brought across country on flat cars arrive. The beams will be used to support the temporary bridge structures in connection with the track elevation process.

Final plans for the track elevation work have been made out by the railroad company. The original prints are slightly changed in the matter of the approaches to the railroad repair shops and coach shops. The railroad company expects to make a new grade along Hough street and may remove a part of their storage sheds in order to get a grade of less angle leading to the shops. Heaps of piling have been unloaded at Gay street and the railroad is showing every sign of making the dirt fly soon.

The Moeller Construction company, which has the contract for the city's part of the big job, is ready to start work as soon as the railroad will permit their activities.

STILL HANG FIRE.

Questions on Oil Tank Dangers Will Face Council.

The city council will have to wrestle with the unsettled question of the right of the Sinclair Oil company to place oil and gasoline tanks within the city limits when the council body meets Tuesday evening. Special session of the rules, regulations and ordinances committee of the council on Tuesday night failed to bring results.

There were warm speeches both for and against the plan of allowing the gasoline containers to be built along the Wabash railroad, near Gay street. Property owners living near the point and of which more than a dozen attended the committee meeting are against the allowing of any tanks in their locality.

Mayor W. J. Hosey stoutly opposes the placing of the explosive containing tanks in the city. He denounced the oil company's program in a ringing address. Frank E. Singrey, a member of the board of works, also made a speech against the admitting of the tanks in Fort Wayne.

S. L. Morris, Jr., and W. P. Breen, two well known attorneys, represented the Sinclair company in asking the council members to leave the present ordinance, passed several weeks ago, to stand. Benjamin Geyer, of the Wayne Oil Tank company, explained to the councilmen that the oil company would place the metal containers beneath ground and that the tanks would be safe. It was shown that the state law will permit the tanks in the city.

Mayor Hosey in a closing speech explained that the city ordinance, if it is more restrictive than the state law, will be respected in the matter of public protection. He begged the council not to let down the bars. The meeting adjourned without the council committee deciding upon a recommendation for the city body. Another meeting may be called before next Tuesday evening.

PLANS FOR PARK.

Siding Plat Will Have Wading Pool and Rest House.

Park Superintendent Adolph Jaenke has completed his drawing of plans for the new Siding Plat, formed by the intersection of Wayne Trace, New Haven avenue and Warren street. His idea for improvement of the park of on that area has been approved by the park board.

There will be a large wading pool in the center of the three sided strip. Walks to the sides of the plat will radiate from the oval pool. There will be a play house for children and a rest house for women. There will be a small play ground on the north side of the plat.

Artistic landscaping will surround the monument at the west end of the park. The monument is the large, inscribed boulder which has been placed by the side of Wayne Trace to mark the way of Anthony Wayne's entrance to Fort Wayne.

Work of grading down the ground in the park site will start this week. Trees and shrubs will be planted this fall. Other building in the small park may be started before cold weather.

RAILROAD EARNINGS MAKE A NEW RECORD

Figures Show Gain of Almost $8,000,000 Over June of 1916.

The 153 roads covered by the figures, operating three-fourths of the country's mileage, reported that their net revenue increased nearly $8,000,000 over June, 1916, the previous record month, and reached a total of $38,283,329.

Operating revenues increased more than $38,000,000, totalling $273,867,527, while expenses were approximately $30,000,000 higher than a year ago. The greatest increase is shown by the western roads, whose operating revenues jumped from $31,000,000 to $110,000,000. Expenses increased approximately $10,000,000, leaving net revenues from operation of $39,616,950, or about $6,000,000 more than in June, 1916.

Eastern roads show an increase in net revenue of approximately $600,000.

Operating revenues increased $15,000,000, totalling $120,865,263, while expenses increased approximately $14,400,000.

In the southern district operating revenues show an increase of more than $7,000,000, reaching $42,719,533. Expenses increased approximately $6,000,000, leaving net revenues $13,494,159, approximately $1,000,000 higher than a year ago.

Preliminary figures, covering the first six months of 1917, show an excess of $2,500,000 in net revenues over the record figures of a year ago. This increase was in the face of several bad months during the winter. The returns are interpreted as indicating that the railroads will exceed in 1917 by many millions the banner figures recorded last year. Total operating revenues of the 153 roads during the first six months were $1,439,248,702, an increase of $163,000,000 over the first six months of 1916. Expenses totalling $1,065,331,720, were approximately $160,500,000 greater than a year ago.

The upward turn came in May when the total earnings showed up slightly better than in May, 1916. Thirty-three railroads still are to be heard from and on the basis of the reports already in, the total operating income of all the roads for June should show a ten million dollar increase at least over June, 1916. The complete returns it is estimated will show the enormous total of $1,800,000,000 in operating incomes during the first six months of the current year. The increase in operating revenues for all roads during the period is expected to amount to approximately $190,000,000.

On the basis of these figures it is not unlikely that the roads will receive around $4,000,000,000 for operations in 1917, an increase of 20 per cent over the previous high total. Expenses, of course, have soared to new heights also, but the margin between revenues and expenses is expected to be greater than ever before.
